Women Their Names The Stories They Tell:

School-smart and Mother-wise Wendy Luttrell, 2016-02-04 School smart and Mother wise illustrates how and why American education disadvantages working class women when they are children and adults In it we hear working class women black and white rural and urban southern and northern recount their childhood experiences describing the circumstances that led them to drop out of school Now enrolled in adult education programs they seek more than a diploma respect recognition and a public identity Drawing upon the life stories of these women Wendy Luttrell sensitively describes and analyzes the politics and psychodynamics that shape working class life schooling and identity She examines the paradox of women s education particularly the relationship between schooling and mothering and offers practical suggestions for school reform More Philadelphia Murals and the Stories They Tell Jane Golden, Robin Rice, Natalie Pompilio, 2006

Featured here is the remarkable story of an unlikely artistic collaboration between boys who live in a residential facility and men who lived in a maximum security state correctional facility and the eight mile long mural they created Stories They Told Me Theresa Dintino, 2003-12 In an underground temple on the Island of Malta Aureillia and Danelle witness a vision of the future that shocks and horrifies them propelling them on to individual journeys of discovery Danelle journeys to Africa There with the local shaman he explores the heartbreaking questions of his soul Aureillia returns to her home in Bronze Age Crete where the shock waves of a prophecy told long ago resonate in ways unexpected Can they find a way to change the future that appears to loom inevitable If you are interested in shamanism the Goddess gender reconciliation or spiritual journeys of any kind this is a book for you Dintino weaves this multi layered tale with such intensity and compassion the characters emerge from the page and envelop you in the mesmerizing spell of their soulfulness Nature's Last Dance

Natalie Kyriacou, 2025-08-26 Amidst the tragedy of wild species extinction lies a hidden world of survival and wonder Conservationists are embroiled in a high stakes clash with a drug cartel to save a porpoise Scientists are fighting to save a flightless bird that romances rocks Unconventional animals are upending 21st century beauty standards and financiers are betting on whale poo to make its debut on Wall Street This is a story of survival and extinction of life and death of curiosity and perversion of unimaginable joy and harrowing sorrow Set against the backdrop of a rapidly unfolding mass extinction event Nature s Last Dance takes readers across hunting grounds through jungles and oceans inside communities through trafficking rings and courtrooms and into the heart of battles to survive against all odds Award winning environmentalist Natalie Kyriacou confronts the extinction crisis with courage and curiosity charting a new course for nature and showing us why it is so worth fighting for The Tattooed Lady Amelia Klem Osterud, 2014-11-06 Living in a time when it was scandalous even to show a bit of ankle a small number of courageous women covered their bodies in tattoos and traveled the country performing nearly nude on carnival stages These gutsy women spun amazing stories for captivated audiences about abductions and forced tattooing at the hands of savages but little has been shared of their real lives Though they spawned a cultural movement almost a quarter of Americans now have tattoos these women have largely faded into history The Tattooed Lady uncovers the true stories behind these women bringing them out of the sideshow realm and into their working class realities Combining thorough research with more than a hundred historical photos this updated second edition explores tattoo origins women s history circus lore and includes even more personal and professional details from modern tattooed ladies A fascinating read The Tattooed Lady pays tribute to a group of unique and amazing women whose legacy lives on Women's Lived Landscapes of War and Liberation in Mozambique Jonna Katto, 2019-11-11 This book tells the history of the changing gendered landscapes of northern Mozambique from the perspective of women who fought in the armed struggle for national independence diverting from the often told narrative of women in nationalist wars that emphasizes a linear plot of liberation Taking a novel approach in focusing on the body senses and landscape Jonna Katto through a study of the women ex combatants lived landscapes shows how their life trajectories unfold as nonlinear spatial histories This brings into focus the women s shifting and multilayered negotiations for personal space and belonging This book explores the life memories of the now aging female ex combatants in the province of Niassa in northern Mozambique looking at how the female ex combatants experiences of living in these northern landscapes have shaped their sense of socio spatial belonging and attachment It builds on the premise that individual embodied memory cannot be separated from social memory personal lives are culturally shaped Thus the book does not only tell the history of a small and rather unique group of women but also speaks about wider cultural histories of body landscape relations in northern Mozambique and especially changes in those relations Enriching our understanding of the gendered history of the liberation struggle in Mozambique and informing broader discussions on gender and nationalism this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African history especially the colonial and postcolonial history of Lusophone Africa as well as gender women s history and peace and conflict studies Death and the Textile Industry in Nigeria Elisha P Renne,2020-11-23 This book draws upon thinking about the work of the dead in the context of deindustrialization specifically the decline of the textile industry in Kaduna Nigeria and its consequences for deceased workers families The author shows how the dead work in various ways for Christians and Muslims who worked in KTL mill in Kaduna not only for their families who still hope to receive termination remittances but also as connections to extended family members in other parts of Nigeria and as claims to land and houses in Kaduna Building upon their actions as a way of thinking about the ways that the dead work for the living the author focuses on three major themes The first considers the growth of the city of Kaduna as a colonial construct which as the capital of the Protectorate of Northern Nigeria was organized by neighborhoods by public cemeteries and by industrial areas The second theme examines the establishment of textile mills in the industrial area and new ways of thinking about work and labor organization time regimens and health particularly occupational ailments documented in mill clinic records The third theme discusses the consequences of KTL mill workers deaths for the lives of their widows and children This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies development studies anthropology of work and the history of industrialization The Introduction Chapter 2 and the Conclusion of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003058137> St.
