Gender and Violence in the Middle East David Ghanim Ph.D., 2009-03-20 Gender and Violence in the Middle East argues that violence is fundamental to the functioning of the patriarchal gender structure that governs daily life in Middle Eastern societies Ghanim contends that the inherent violence of gender relations in the Middle East feeds the authoritarianism and political violence that plague public life in the region In this societal sense men as well as women may be said to be victims of the structural violence inherent in Middle Eastern gender relations The author shows that the varieties of physical violence against women for which the Middle East is notorious honor killings obligatory beatings female genital mutilation are merely eruptions of an ethos of psychological violence and the threat of physical violence that pervades gender relations in the Middle East Ghanim documents and analyzes the complementary roles of both sexes in sustaining the system of violence and oppressive control that regulates gender relations in Middle Eastern societies He reveals that women are not only victims of violence but welcome the opportunity to become perpetrators of violence in the married female life cycle of subordination followed by domination The mother in law plays a crucial role in supporting the structure of patriarchal control by stoking tensions with her daughter in law and provoking her son to commit sanctioned violence on his wife The author applies his deep analysis of gender and violence in the Middle East to illuminate the motivational profiles of male and female political suicidalists from the Middle East and the martyrological adulation that they are accorded in Middle Eastern societies studies and gender studies as well as those in related fields such as cultural studies politics area studies sociology anthropology and history Views from the Edge Neguin Yavari, Lawrence G. Potter, Jean-Marc Ran Oppenheim, 2004-11-24 These essays were written by colleagues and former students of Richard Bulliet the preeminent Middle East scholar whose most important contribution remains his extraordinary imagination in the service of history The hallmark of the book then is innovative scholarship in all periods of Islamic history Its authors share a commitment to asking original historiographical questions with an overall orientation toward issues in social history Feminism in Islam Margot Badran, 2013-10-01 While many in the West regard feminism and Islam as a contradiction in terms many Muslims in the East have perceived Western feminist forces in their midst as an assault upon their culture In this career spanning collection of influential essays Margot Badran presents the feminisms that Muslim women have created and examines Islamic and secular feminist ideologies side by side Borne out of over two decades of work this important volume combines essays from a variety of sources ranging from those which originated as conference papers to those published in the popular press Also including original material written specifically for this book Feminism and Islam provides a unique and wide ranging contribution to the field of Islam and gender studies Hermeneutics and Honor Anan Ameri, 1999 Women s traversal of public space in Islamic ate societies and the ensuing process of negotiating gendered identities are the central concerns of this collection of essays The dichotomy between private and public spheres upheld as axiomatic for most societies has recently been challenged by scholars as an artificial construct For women in particular the demarcation between the two spheres has become blurred by the enormous public consequences of their private behaviour Elaborate cultural codes of honour and traditional masculinist interpretations of scripture have reinforced the public private polarity and restricted Muslim women s access to the public realm as conventionally defined The distinguished contributors to this volume provide insight into how women from different social strata and historical periods in various Islamic ate societies have creatively engaged with these limitations upon their behaviour Politics and Culture in the Developing World Richard J. Payne, Jamal R. Park, Aomar Boum, 2006-01-16 The Kingdom of Morocco achieved its independence in 1956 after over 40 years as a French protectorate. Since its independence, it has further expanded its area of control by reclaiming the formerly international city of Tangier as well as annexing Western Sahara from Spain in the 1970s. In 1777, Morocco became the first nation to recognize the United States, and the Moroccan American Treaty of Friendship of 1783 is the oldest unbroken friendship treaty with the U.S. Morocco of the past and present are covered in this second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Morocco. Are Muslims Distinctive? M. Steven Fish, 2011-02-09. Are Muslims Distinctive represents the first major scientific effort to assess how Muslims and non-Muslims differ and do not differ in the contemporary world. Using rigorous methods and data drawn from around the globe, M. Steven Fish reveals that in some areas, Muslims and non-Muslims differ less than is commonly imagined. Muslims are not inclined to favor the fusion of religious and political authority or especially prone to mass political violence. Yet there are differences. Gender inequality is more severe among Muslims. Muslims are unusually averse to homosexuality and other controversial behaviors, and democracy is rare in the Muslim world. Other areas of divergence bear the marks of a Muslim advantage. Homicide rates and class-based inequities are less severe among Muslims than non-Muslims. Fish's findings have vital implications for human welfare, interfaith understanding, and international relations.

Gender Politics in Turkey and Russia Gökten Huriye Dogangün, 2019-12-26. Both Russia and Turkey were pioneering examples of feminism in the early 20th Century when the Bolshevik and Republican states embraced an ideology of women's equality. Yet now these countries have drifted towards authoritarianism, and the concept of gender is being invoked to reinforce tradition, nationalism, and to oppose Western culture. Gökten Dogangün's book explores the relationship between the state and gender equality in Russia and Turkey, covering the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917 and the Republican Revolution of 1923, and highlighting the very different gender climates that have emerged under the leaderships of Putin and Erdogan The research is based on analysis of legal documents statistical data and reports as well as in depth interviews with experts activists and public officials Dogang n identifies a climate of neo traditionalism in contemporary Russia and neo conservatism in contemporary Turkey and examines how Putin and Erdogan s ambitions to ensure political stability security and legitimacy are achieved by promoting commonly held family values grounded in religion and tradition The book reveals what it means to be a woman in Turkey and Russia today and covers key topics such as hostility towards feminism women s employment domestic violence motherhood and abortion Dogang n provides the first comparative study that seeks to understand the escalation of patriarchy and the decline of democracy which is being witnessed across the world

Engendering Citizenship in Egypt Selma Botman,1999 How is citizenship defined in Egypt and by whom How have women asserted themselves in public life and how have they been limited and sometimes excluded from the political process In this decade by decade survey beginning with Egypt s independence from British rule Botman explains how political culture in Egypt has developed Tracing an entrenched system of male hegemony in the household and in the state this study illustrates the changing yet ever restricted role of women in Egyptian society Operational Culture for the Warfighter Barak A. Salmoni,Paula Holmes-Eber,2008 This textbook is designed to help Marines link concepts of culture to the realities of planning and executing military operations around the world p 2 Emigré Feminism Alena Heitlinger,1999-01-01 The thirteen articles presented here originated with a conference on emigre feminism held at Trent University in October 1996 The authors most of them now living in Canada are scholars from South Africa Uganda Chile Trinidad and Tobago Greece Hungary the Czech Republic Poland Turkey Iran Finland and New Zealand Gender and Citizenship in the Middle East Suad Joseph,2000-11-01 The essays in this work illustrate the various ways in which women in the Middle East fall short of being vested with the rights and privileges that would define them as fully enfranchised citizens They offer an examination of national legislation on personal status penal law and labour Religious Rights Lorenzo Zucca,2017-05-15 The central focus of this collection of essays is the role and place of freedom of religion in the protection and promotion of world order The volume offers competing models of world order from a global perspective and highlights the lack of consensus and considerable variety of practice and belief around the globe as to the definition of religious freedom and where and whether freedom of religion is regarded as the first freedom in the world The leading theories of freedom of religion are discussed and provide an understanding of freedom of religion beyond the nation state The liberal view at the global level is also examined and observations are included regarding the need to rethink secularism in the light of present circumstances and within the global context Women and Fluid Identities H. Afshar,2012-11-27 This book argues that it is the fluidity of women s identities that enables them to bridge the gender divides and roles ascribed to them by society and culture with those that they have chosen for themselves whilst retaining a sense of their self Women in Zones of Conflict Tami Amanda Jacoby,2005 Tami Amanda Jacoby investigates the constraints and opportunities for women s civic engagements in zones of conflict through a case study of three women's political movements in Israel: Women in Green, The Jerusalem Link, and the lobby for women's right to fight in the Israeli Defence Forces (IDF). Filling a void in feminist studies of women and war, Women in Zones of Conflict challenges the traditional view which suggests a natural connection between women and pacifism based on the feminine qualities of caring, cooperation, and empathy. Feminist studies of nationalism also envision women as either victimized by patriarchy within nationalist movements or as adopting masculine qualities to conform to the culture of their male compatriots. Jacoby takes an alternative approach, considering how women are situated across the political spectrum. She argues that when categories other than gender, such as class, ethnicity, religion, and political perspective are considered, there is no single perspective on what it means to be a woman in conflict.
