Women Of Owu Characterization:

The Politics of Adaptation Astrid Van Weyenberg, 2013 This book explores contemporary African adaptations of classical Greek tragedies Six South African and Nigerian dramatic texts by Yael Farber Mark Fleishman Athol Fugard Femi Osofisan and Wole Soyinka are analysed through the thematic lens of resistance revolution reconciliation and mourning The opening chapters focus on plays that mobilize Greek tragedy to inspire political change discussing how Sophocles heroine Antigone is reconfigured as a freedom fighter and how Euripides Dionysos is transformed into a revolutionary leader The later chapters shift the focus to plays that explore the costs and consequences of political change examining how the cycle of violence dramatized in Aeschylus Oresteia trilogy acquires relevance in post apartheid South Africa and how the mourning of Euripides Trojan Women resonates in and beyond Nigeria Throughout the emphasis is on how playwrights through adaptation perform a cultural politics directed at the Europe that has traditionally considered ancient Greece as its property foundation and legitimization Van Weyenberg additionally discusses how contemporary African reworkings of Greek tragedies invite us to reconsider how we think about the genre of tragedy and about the cultural process of adaptation Against George Steiner's famous claim that tragedy has died this book demonstrates that Greek tragedy holds relevance today But it also reveals that adaptations do more than simply keeping the texts they draw on alive through adaptation playwrights open up a space for politics In this dynamic between adaptation and pre text the politics of adaptation is performed

Hellenic Common Philip Zapkin, 2021-08-20 Hellenic Common argues that theatrical adaptations of Greek tragedy exemplify the functioning of a cosmopolitan cultural commonwealth Analyzing plays by Femi Osofisan Moira Buffini Marina Carr Colin Teevan and Yael Farber this book shows how contemporary adapters draw tragic and mythic material from a cultural common and remake those stories for modern audiences Phillip Zapkin theorizes a political economy of adaptation combining both a formal reading of adaptation as an aesthetic practice and a political reading of adaptation as a form of resistance Drawing an ethical centre from Kwame Anthony Appiah's work on cosmopolitanism and Michael Hardt and Antonio Negri's theory of the common Hellenic Common argues that Attic tragedy forms a cultural commonwealth from which dramatists the world over can rework reimagine and restage materials to envision aspirational new worlds through the arts This study will be of great interest to students and scholars of drama adaptation studies literature and neoliberalism

Portrayals of Masculinity in Nigerian Plays Beatrice Nwawuloke Onuoha, 2023-10-16 Portrayals of Masculinity in Nigerian Plays explores Nigerian people's notions of masculinity as portrayed in twelve Nigerian plays written by three generations of Nigerian playwrights She argues that hegemonic masculinity and other forms which are referred to as alternative masculinities exist in traditional Nigerian society By analyzing plays written by first second and third generation Nigerian playwrights Onuoha tracks how notions about masculinity have evolved over the years Further she discusses the malleability of masculinity by exploring how women manifest qualities associated with masculinity within Nigerian plays

Through a review of critical studies on gender constructions Onuoha examines not only the negative experiences of women within an African patriarchal system but also the negative experiences of the men who are also direct or indirect victims of such a system

Re-writing Pasts, Imagining Futures Gomia, Victor N., Ndi, Gilbert Shang, 2018-02-20 The papers in this volume focus on fiction and theatre in their traditional forms as well as in their encounters with novel and innovative forms and avenues of dissemination As a cultural practice that emerged from a process of protest and contestation of hegemony it is understandable that one main concern in African literature and literary criticism is the resistance against the emergence of marginalizing centers in formerly or currently marginalized societies with regard to discourses aesthetics and media of creation These new centers that sometimes undermine the strategic tactical exploitation of the relative advantage procured by each medium run the risk of leading to new forms of stratification that mitigate the import of African and African diasporic literatures The collection of essays therefore seeks to analyze the representation of pertinent socio political and historical questions in a variety of postcolonial texts from Africa and the African diasporas notably the Caribbean islands and the United States of America However far from re writing of history in a way that cedes to conservative worldviews creative writers and critics simultaneously attempt to chart ways forward for socially all inclusive futures In the context of colonial and neo colonial legacies that seem to forestall any sense of individual and collective self fulfillment contributors to this volume examine the pertinence of African fiction and theatre in imagining new vistas of re conceptualizing the postcolonial condition in ways that re galvanize the belief in an enabling future

Being and Becoming Ukpokolo, Chinyere, 2016-02-27 This book illuminates the complex and constantly shifting social and cultural dynamics that shape people's identity Specifically the volume focuses on the intersections of gender with culture and identity and at different historical epochs on the way men and women define themselves and are defined by diverse peoples and cultures across time and space in sub Saharan Africa The discussions presented in this anthology primarily focus on being as a state or condition defined by sex identity and how this identity shifts and hence becoming assuming diverse meanings in disparate societies contexts and time The discourse therefore moves from how the perception of the self in cultural and historical contexts has informed actions and at some other times shaped interpretations given to historical facts to how changing economic realities also shape the definitions and constructions of social and relational issues in Sub Saharan Africa The historical trajectories of Islamic religion colonialism and Christian missionary activities in sub Saharan Africa have shaped the worlds of the peoples of the region and impacted on gender relations

Dynamics of Distancing in Nigerian Drama Nadia Anwar, 2016-07-05 Nadia Anwar analyzes selected post independence Nigerian dramas using the conceptual framework of metatheatre a theatrical strategy that foregrounds the process of play making by breaking the dramatic illusion She argues that distancing as a function of metatheatre creates a balanced theatrical experience and environment in terms of the emotive and cognitive levels of reception of a particular performance Anwar's book is the first in depth study to apply the concept of metatheatre to Nigerian drama She brings the perspectives of Bertolt Brecht Thomas J Scheff and other theoreticians of dramatic distancing to the analysis of plays by authors such as Wole Soyinka Ola Rotimi Femi Osofisan Esiaba Irobi and Stella Dia Oyedepo

Odun Cristina Boscolo, 2009 A poetic voice scans the rhythm of academic research telling of the encounter with odun then the voice falls silent What is then raised is the dust of a forgotten academic debate on the nature of theatre and drama and the following divergent standpoints of critical discourses bent on empowering their own vision and defining themselves rather as counterdiscourses This the first part of the book a metacritical discourse on the geopolitics the inherent power imbalances of academic writing and its effects on odun the performances dedicated to the gods ancestors and heroes of Yorub history But odun where is it and what is it And the voice The many critical discourses have not really answered these questions In effect odun is many things To enable the reader to see these the study proceeds with an intermezzo a frame of reference that sets odun the festival in its own historico cultural ecoenvironment identifying the strategies that inform the performance and constitute its aesthetic It is a classical yet for odun an innovative procedure This interdisciplinary background equips the reader with the knowledge necessary to watch the performance to witness its beauty and to understand the half words odun utters And now the performance can begin The voice emerges one last time to introduce the second section which presents two case studies The reader is led day by day through the celebrations odun ede Moromi's story and its realization in performance then confrontation by the masks of the ancestors during odun egun particularly as held in Ibadan The meaning of odun becomes clearer and clearer Odun is poetry dances masks food prayer It is play and belief gb gb It is interaction between the players both performers and spectators It is also politics and power It contains secrets and sacrifices It is a reality with its own dimension and above all as the quintessential site of knowledge it possesses the power to transform In short it is a challenge a challenge that the present book and its voices take up
