

WOODWORKER'S GUIDE TO WOOD

The background of the cover is a photograph showing a variety of wood species and finished woodwork. In the center, a square block of dark, wavy-grained wood (likely walnut) sits on a smaller block. To its left is a dark, smooth, oval-shaped object. To its right is a light-colored, rectangular block. In the foreground, there are several turned wooden objects: a dark, smooth sphere, a light-colored sphere with a dark band, a dark sphere with a light band, and a sphere with a checkered pattern. A long, rectangular piece of light-colored wood lies horizontally across the middle. Other wood blocks and turned objects are scattered in the background, creating a sense of depth and showcasing different wood textures and finishes.
