Wordgloss A Cultural Lexicon:

Wordgloss Jim O'Donnell, 2005 This lively and engaging reference book explores the meaning and etymology of common Latin and Greek phrases in law politics science technology literature philosophy and the arts Requiem for the Republic James M Bourke, 2021-07-30 Requiem for the Republic is a collection of socio political essays on the state of the Irish nation Unfortunately the current New Ireland is but a pale shadow of the republic that was established a hundred years ago in 1921 following the War of Independence The thesis of these critical essays is that Ireland is no longer a true republic It is the author's contention that it has become a servile secularist state ruled by a political elite with an inflated sense of self importance and a lack of empathy for the common people The essays look at different aspects of the transformation of a Christian nation into a secularist state The main focus is on the clash of cultures between the toxic ideology of the New Ireland and the high ideals set by the founding fathers of the republic Of course the views expressed by Bourke are his personal opinions They are contestable and will be contested Many liberal writers choose to ignore the disintegration of Christian Ireland and its traditional values However Bourke will not be silent He states his case with searing honesty knowing that to remain silent would not serve the public interest Word Gloss James D. O'Donnell, 1990 Theoretical and Methodological Approaches to the Sociolinguistic Integration of Migration Florentino Paredes García, María Sancho Pascual, 2020-12-29 Migration has become a structural part of the globalized society in which we live and as such it is essential to determine the causes and effects it produces in the involved social groups Sociolinguistics has a very important role to play in this respect insofar as its object of study focuses precisely on the analysis of the interrelationships between the linguistic and the social dimensions This volume presents a series of proposals that involve theoretical approaches models and applications related to the process of sociolinguistic integration in contact situations arising from migration The volume includes studies of general interest which present models and theoretical foundations for the analysis of this process of integration as well as others which focus on other more specific aspects such as how migration influences the construction of individual identity emotional and affective factors in the preservation of the heritage language and the processes of interlingual convergence that take place in situations of migratory contact This volume also contains the didactic dimension applied to the immigrant population with proposals for teaching with proven effectiveness An Introduction to Lexicography Ram Adhar Singh, 1982 Liddell and Scott Christopher Stray, Michael J. Clarke, Joshua Timothy Katz, 2019 Everyone who studies or researches ancient Greek uses the Greek English Lexicon of Liddell and Scott this volume brings together essays on all aspects of the history constitution and problematics of this extraordinary work in order to better understand its significance for both Greek studies and the theory and practice of lexicography The Oxford Handbook of African Archaeology Peter Mitchell, Paul Lane, 2013-07-04 This Handbook provides a comprehensive synthesis of African archaeology covering the entirety of the continent's past from the beginnings of human evolution to the archaeological legacy of European colonialism It includes a mixture of key methodological and theoretical issues and debates and situates the subject's contemporary practice The Contemporary Theory of Metaphor Ning Yu, 1998-07-15 This comparative study of Chinese and English metaphor contributes to the search for metaphoric universals by placing the contemporary theory of metaphor in a broad cross linguistic and cross cultural perspective The author explores to what degree abstract reasoning is metaphorical and which conceptual metaphors are culture specific wide spread or universal in a cognitive and cultural context The empirical studies presented reinforce the view that metaphor is the main mechanism through which abstract concepts are comprehended and abstract reasoning is performed They also support from the perspective of Chinese the candidacy of some conceptual metaphors for metaphorical universals These include for instance the ANGER IS HEAT metaphor the HAPPY IS UP metaphor emotions the TIME AS SPACE metaphor and the Event Structure Metaphor It seems that these conceptual metaphors are grounded in some basic human experiences that may be universal to all human beings
