Wordweaving Wordweaving:

Wordweaving Trevor Silvester,2003 This text presents a new approach to the use of hypnotic suggestion For years hypnotherapists have used scripts which are aimed at a particular problem like smoking or weight loss rather than aiming at the client who smokes or has weight issues Trevor Silvester suggests that it is not the problem that is the problem it s the client s unique relationship with the problem that s the problem The book aims to free you from the constraints of scripts and enable you to use your creative skill to weave subtle spells that empower your clients by changing their model of reality It presents the science behind suggestion and the means of using that science to create magical ways of influencing others

Textiles and Textile Imagery in Early Medieval English

Literature Maren Clegg Hyer,2025-04-22 Identifies and analyses a wide range of textile metaphors and imagery from peace weaving in Beowulf to word crafting in Elene Textile metaphors or metaphors involving the process and product of cloth making occur widely in literary traditions around the world The same phenomenon holds true among the peoples of early medieval England As close observers of a long and culturally significant textile tradition pre Conquest English writers drew upon their close familiarity with spinning and weaving to create a wide range of metaphorical textile images in both Old English and Anglo Latin literature This book examines early medieval English textile imagery in close detail situating it within its cultural and material contexts and addressing the ways in which lived experience informed these metaphors whether inherited invented or both It explores imagery linked to themes of creation peace death magic and fate in a comprehensive variety of texts including Beowulf and Elene Anglo Latin letters and riddles the Exeter Book riddles prognostics penitentials hagiographic and homiletic texts medical collections and glosses Overall it demonstrates how an understanding of this important body of textile metaphors alters and shapes the ways in which we read the literature of this period

Textiles, Text, Intertext Maren Clegg Hyer,Jill Frederick,2016 The theme of weaving a powerful metaphor within Anglo Saxon studies and Old English literature itself unites the essays collected here They range from consideration of interwoven sources in homiletic prose and a word weaving poet to woven riddles and iconographical textures in medieval art and show how weaving has the power to represent textiles texts and textures both literal and metaphorical in the early medieval period They thus form an appropriate tribute to Professor Gale R Owen Crocker whose own scholarship has focussed on exploring woven works of textile and dress manuscripts and text and other arts of the Anglo Saxon peoples

Phantasms of Matter in Gogol (and Gombrowicz) Michal Oklot,2009 An investigation into the problem of writing about matter in Nikolai Gogol s work and indirectly into the entire Neoplatonic tradition in Russian literature this book is not intended to be an exhaustive historical survey of the concept of matter but rather an effort to enumerate the images of matter in Gogol s texts and to specify the rules of their construction The trajectory of the book is directed by movement from Gogol to Gogol Its major assumption is that Gogol successfully develops a language for grasping the Neoplatonic concept of matter and subsequently rejects it abandoning literature Since then the Gogolian form sic of the image of a sheer negation of form has recurred frequently in Russian literature Yet the direction of the movement is always towards Gogol Somewhere at the margin of this circular trajectory one can inscribe a Polish writer Witold Gombrowicz who established one hundred years later a similar rhythm governing Polish literature from Gombrowicz to Gombrowicz
