through Bereavement and Loss & When the Sun Fell Out of the Sky Hollie Rankin, 2021-03-18 Currently many children are unable to access emotional support services and other members of a child's support network are required to provide this emotional guidance and support. This set consisting of a guidebook and an accompanying story book has been written to support children when they have experienced a loss or bereavement. It is intended to be used by families and friends, school staff and all other adults supporting children through their grief to help them to provide this emotional guidance. Guide to supporting Children through Bereavement and Loss offers information, education and guidance about how to understand grief, ways to support the process and emotions of grief and to help children to express themselves and make sense of their changed world. The accompanying story book When the Sun Fell Out of the Sky has been written to support key adults in helping bereaved children to find a way to cope, manage and make it through their grief. The set is designed to be used by any person supporting a child through loss or bereavement no matter their previous understanding of these issues. It is specifically written to be as accessible and as user friendly as possible to help rather than hinder the user and the books can be used together or alone.
