The World Of Persian Literary Humanism:

The World of Persian Literary Humanism Hamid Dabashi, 2012-11-20 Humanism has mostly considered the question What does it mean to be human from a Western perspective Dabashi asks it anew from a non European perspective in a groundbreaking study of 1 400 years of Persian literary humanism He presents the unfolding of this vast tradition as the creative and subversive subconscious of Islamic civilization The Shahnameh Hamid Dabashi, 2019-01-08 The Shahnameh an epic poem recounting the foundation of Iran across mythical heroic and historical ages is the beating heart of Persian literature and culture Composed by Abu al Qasem Ferdowsi over a thirty year period and completed in the year 1010 the epic has entertained generations of readers and profoundly shaped Persian culture society and politics For a millennium Iranian and Persian speaking people around the globe have read memorized discussed performed adapted and loved the poem In this book Hamid Dabashi brings the Shahnameh to renewed global attention encapsulating a lifetime of learning and teaching the Persian epic for a new generation of readers Dabashi insightfully traces the epic s history authorship poetic significance complicated legacy of political uses and abuses and enduring significance in colonial and postcolonial contexts In addition to explaining and celebrating what makes the Shahnameh such a distinctive literary work he also considers the poem in the context of other epics such as the Aeneid and the Odyssey and critical debates about the concept of world literature Arguing that Ferdowsi s epic and its reception broached this idea long before nineteenth century Western literary criticism Dabashi makes a powerful case that we need to rethink the very notion of world literature in light of his reading of the Persian epic

Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Lucian Stone, 2014-07-31 Since cosmopolitanism has often been conceived as a tenet of Western civilization that emanates from its Enlightenment based origins in a humanist age of modernity Iranian Identity and Cosmopolitanism Spheres of Belonging advances a highly innovative gesture by contemplating the implications and relevance of the idea in a so called non Western cultural territory The particularities of the Iranian and Islamic context shed new light on advancements and obstacles to cosmopolitan praxis The volume provides four principle disciplinary assessments of cosmopolitanism philosophy political science sociology and cultural studies including literary criticism The authors in this collection critically examine topics including the historical encounter between Iranian and Western thinkers and its impact on Iranian political ideals the tension between maintaining apolitical theology rooted in metaphysical assumptions and the prerequisite of secularism in cosmopolitan and democratic philosophies This highly innovative volume will be of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern and Iranian Studies Islamic Studies Globalization Political Science and Philosophy The Persian Prince Hamid Dabashi, 2023-06-06 With its title borrowed from Machiavelli The Persian Prince goes far beyond Machiavelli s wildest imagination as to how to rule the world Hamid Dabashi articulates a bold new idea of the Persian Prince a metaphor of political authority a figurative ideal deeply rooted in the collective memories of multiple nations and a literary construct that connected Muslim empires across time and space and continues to inform political debate today Drawing on works from Classical Antiquity and the vast Persianate worlds from India to the Mediterranean as well as the Hebrew Bible and European medieval mirrors for princes Dabashi engages a diverse body of political thought to reveal the construction of the Persian Prince as a potent archetype He traces this archetype through its varied historic gestations and finds it resurfacing in postcolonial political thought as a rebel a prophet a poet and a nomad Bringing poetics and politics together Dabashi shows how this archetypal figure has long defined political authority throughout the wider Iranian and Islamic worlds With meticulous attention to literary and poetic texts moral and philosophical treatises allegorical and anecdotal stories sacred and secular evidence visual and performing arts histories of global empires and colonial conquests this sweeping work offers a deeply learned richly erudite and transformative piece of critical thinking As Dabashi shows the Persian Prince remains the stuff of current debate across the Muslim and Persianate worlds in contestations over the public domain and the collective will to power and above all in the prospects of democratic institutions

Unsettling Colonial Modernity in Islamicate Contexts Kara Adbolmaleki, Roxana Akhbari, Siavash Saffari, 2017-05-11 By focusing on colonial histories and legacies this edited volume breaks new ground in studying modernity in Islamicate contexts From a range of disciplinary perspectives the authors probe colonial modernity as a condition whose introduction into Islamicate contexts was facilitated historically by European encroachment into South Asia the Middle East and Northern Africa They also analyze the various modes through which in Europe itself and in North America by extension people from Islamicate contexts have been and continue to be otherized in the constitution and advancement of the project of modernity The book further brings to light a multiplicity of social political cultural and aesthetic modes of resistance aimed at subverting and unsettling colonial modernity in both Muslim majority and diasporic contexts

Iran Hamid Dabashi, 2016-10-05 In this unprecedented book Hamid Dabashi provides a provocative account of Iran in its current resurrection as a mighty regional power Through a careful study of contemporary Iranian history in its political literary and artistic dimensions Dabashi decouples the idea of Iran from its colonial linkage to the cliché notion of the nation state and then demonstrates how an aesthetic intuition of transcendence has enabled it to be re-conceived as a powerful nation This rebirth has allowed for repressed political and cultural forces to surface redefining the nation's future beyond its fictive postcolonial borders and autonomous from the state apparatus that wishes but fails to rule it Iran's sovereignty Dabashi argues is inaugurated through an active and open-ended self-awareness of the nation's history and recent political and aesthetic instantiations as it has been sustained by successive waves of revolutionary prose poetry and visual and performing arts performed categorically against the censorial will of the state

Constructing Nationalism in Iran Meir Litvak, 2017-04-21 Nationalism has played an important role in the cultural and intellectual discourse of modernity that emerged in Iran from the late nineteenth century to the present promoting new formulations of collective identity and advocating a new and more active role for the broad strata of the public in politics The essays in this volume seek to shed light on the construction of nationalism in Iran in its many manifestations cultural social political and ideological by exploring on going debates on this important and progressive topic Persian Literary Influence on English Literature Hasan Javadi,1987 The Writers Directory ,2013 South Asia Bulletin ,2008 The Last Muslim Intellectual Hamid Dabashi,2021 In this social and intellectual biography Hamid Dabashi contends that Jalal Al e Ahmad was the last Muslim intellectual to have articulated a vision of Muslim worldly cosmopolitanism This unprecedented engagement with Al e Ahmad s life and legacy is a prelude to what Dabashi calls a post Islamist Liberation Theology Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1912 The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review ,1914 Emerson's Literary Philosophy Reza Hosseini,2021 A formidable yet intimately rendered report on the relationship between philosophy and literature as expressed by Ralph Waldo Emerson David LaRocca Cornell University USA author of On Emerson 2003 Positioning Emerson within both ancient and contemporary philosophical traditions this study goes far in revealing the great nineteenth century American thinker s significance in his own time and often refreshingly in his own words Roger Sedarat author of Emerson in Iran the American Appropriation of Persian Poetry This book situates Ralph Waldo Emerson in the tradition of philosophy as spiritual exercise arguing that the defining feature of his literary philosophy is the conviction that there is an inherent link between moral persuasion and literary excellence Hosseini persuasively argues that the Emersonian project can be viewed as an extension of Socrates call for a return to the beginning of philosophy to search for a way of revolutionizing our ways of seeing from within Examining Emerson s provocative style of writing Hosseini contends that his prose is shaped by a desire to bring about psychagogia or influencing the soul through the power of words This book furthermore examines the evolving nature of Emerson s thoughts on scholarly action and its implications his religious temperament as an aesthetic experience of the world through wonder and the reasons for a resounding acknowledgment of despair in his essay Experience In the concluding chapter Hosseini explores the depth of Emerson s engagement with the classical Persian poets and argues that what we may call his literary humanism is informed by Persian Adab exemplified in the writings of Rumi Hafiz and Saadi Weaving together themes from Persian philosophy and Emersonian transcendentalism Hosseini establishes Emerson s way of seeing as refreshingly relevant showing that the questions he tackled in his writings are as pressing today as they were in his time The Subversive Seventies in Tehran Hamid Dabashi,Hagop Kevorkian Professor of Iranian Studies and Comparative Literature Hamid Dabashi,2025-12-31 Provides a first hand account of the revolutionary politics and culture of 1970s Tehran From the ancient world to the Reformation era Daniel D. McGarry,Clarence L. Hohl,1962 Reversing the Colonial Gaze Hamid Dabashi,2020-01-16 A transformative account of the adventures of Persian travelers in the nineteenth century moving beyond Eurocentric approaches to travel narratives The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2006 The Literary Digest ,1916 Iran, the Green Movement and the USA Hamid Dabashi,2010-10 Iran The Green Movement and the USA presents the dilemma that the West faces in dealing with the Islamic Republic of Iran and their nuclear armament and how the unfolding civil rights movement in Iran the Green Movement will be affected by this interaction Iranian scholar and author Hamid Dabashi argues that if Obama negotiates with Ahmadinejad he will further strengthen the IRI regionally and legitimize Ahmadinejad's otherwise troubled presidency internationally and if he were not to do so and opt for further economic sanctions and or military strikes he will paradoxically strengthen the IRI regionally and altogether destroy the domestic opposition and the budding Green Movement This elegantly written book presents an Iran weak in domestic affairs but strong in regional geopolitics providing the reader with a dynamic picture of the region and a purposeful analytic of how to understand and deal with it It also features a short history of how the US and Iran were placed in this confrontational position and who their respective allies in the region are
