young men and its borders the points of their spears attributed to King Agesilaos There have been no shortage of great warrior societies in history including the Romans Mongols Macedonians and Vikings the list goes on Yet one humble city in particular nestled in a valley near the Eurotas river in the Greek region of the Peloponnese and once ridiculed as little more than a cluster of villages inhabited by uncouth shepherds produced the most famous warrior elite the world has ever known The most unique city state in Ancient Greece was Sparta which continues to fascinate contemporaneous society It is not entirely clear why Sparta placed such a great emphasis on having a militaristic society but the result was that military fitness was a preoccupation from birth If a Spartan baby did not appear physically fit at birth it was left to die Spartan children underwent military training around the age of 7 years old and every male had to join the army around the age of 18 The Spartans whose carefully constructed approach to warfare and there is no other word for it Spartan way of life earned the grudging admiration of all of Greece and succeeded in establishing themselves in the years following the reforms of the semi legendary ruler Lycurgus as the greatest military force in all of Hellas Athens might have the mightiest fleet and the greatest cadre of philosophers and dramatists Thessaly might have had the most vaunted cavalry and the great city states of Argos Thebes and Corinth all had their own claims to fame but on the battlefield the Spartan phalanx stood without peer So feared were they in Greece that their very appearance on the battlefield could cause entire enemy armies to flee in terror and in one of history s most famous battles 300 Spartan warriors headed a combined Greek force which held off the hundreds of thousands of Persian warriors of Xerxes s invading army for three days at Thermopylae inflicting an estimated 20 000 casualties upon them before dying to the last man rather than retreating Sparta will forever be known for its military prowess but they had lives off the battlefield as well and their way of life was also unique For example Spartan females were formally educated which was a rarity among the city states and the Spartan way of life was entirely dependent on a class of indentured servants known as the helots Yet the Laws of Lycurgus which ordered all Spartans to disregard art with the exception of song which the Spartans prized and some forms of music and poetry to distrust philosophy and to abhor excess in all things were designed to create the perfect warrior society and they did As a result the Spartans became notorious for Laconic phrases The World s Greatest Civilizations The History and Culture of Ancient Sparta comprehensively covers the history and culture of the famous Greek city state looking at their religious political and military past and examining all their accomplishments Along with historic artwork depicting important people places and events The History and Culture of Ancient Sparta will bring readers up to speed on Ancient Sparta today Ancient Civilizations of the World Denny Rose & Rowan Allen, 2018-05-08 About 5 000 years ago the first urban societies developed laying the foundations for the first civilizations Nearly all civilizations share the same few features they have abundant food surpluses contained cities political bureaucracies armies defined religious and social hierarchies and long distance trading Ancient Egyptian culture flourished between c 5500 BCE with the rise of technology as evidenced in the glass work of faience and 30 BCE with the death of

Cleopatra VII the last Ptolemaic ruler of Egypt It is famous today for the great monuments which celebrated the triumphs of the rulers and honored the gods of the land The culture is often misunderstood as having been obsessed with death but had this been so it is unlikely it would have made the significant impression it did on other ancient cultures such as Greece and Rome Neolithic means a new stone age even though agriculture was the crowning achievement of the period Civilizations started out small Agriculture at first tended to tie only small groups together These groups also all settled along rivers important as a reliable and predictable source of water As time passed families usually worked the same plot of land over successive generations leading to the concept of ownership Ancient mortars and grinding tools unearthed in a large mound in the Zagros Mountains of Iran reveal that people were grinding wheat and barley about 11 000 years ago Grass pea wild wheat wild barley and lentils were found throughout the site including some of the earliest known samples This was much further east than most sites known for early agriculture This book furnishes with utmost facility to all classes of readers the needed information on ancient civilization The unusual variety of the subject makes this a work of endless fascination
