over a dark river flowing slowly The stream was a full half mile from shore to shore and the great weight of water moved on in silent majesty Both banks were lined with heavy forest dark green by day but fused now into solid blackness by the approach of night The scene was wild and primordial To an eye looking down it would have seemed that man had never come there and that this was the dawn of time The deep waters lapped the silent shore until a gentle sighing sound arose a sound that may have gone on unheard for ages Close to the water a file of wild ducks flew like an arrow to the north and in a little cove where the current came in shallow waves a stag bent his head to drink The Canadian Mining Journal Benjamin
