Miller, Mindy Jane Roseman, 2019-02-08 Over the past two decades human rights as legal doctrine and practice has shifted its engagement with criminal law from a near exclusive condemnation of it as a source of harm toward increasingly invoking it as a necessary remedy for abuses These shifts are most visible in the context of sexuality reproduction and gender Criminal law appears in modern states as a tool for societies to define forbidden acts crimes and prescribe punishments It authorizes the state to use force as an aspect of expressing and establishing norms societal expectations for acceptable behavior which when breached permit individuals to be excluded and stigmatized as unfit for inclusion But the core principles of human rights oppose exclusion and stigma and embrace the equality and dignity of all Therefore there is an insuperable tension when human rights actors invoke criminal law to protect and vindicate human rights violations Beyond Virtue and Vice examines the ways in which recourse to the criminal law features in work by human rights advocates regarding sexuality gender and reproduction and presents a framework for considering if when and under what conditions recourse to criminal law is compatible with human rights Contributors from a wide range of disciplinary fields and geographic locations offer historical and contemporary perspectives doctrinal cautionary tales and close readings of advocacy campaigns on the use of criminal law in cases involving abortion and reproductive rights HIV AIDS sex work and prostitution law human trafficking sexual violence across genders child rights and adolescent sexuality and LGBT issues The volume offers specific values and approaches of possible use to advocates activists policy makers legislators scholars and students in their efforts to craft dialogue and engagement to move beyond state practices that compromise human rights in the name of restraining vice and extolling virtue Contributors Aziza Ahmed Widney Brown Sealing Cheng Sonia Corr a Joanna N Erdman Janet Halley Alli Jernow Maria Lucia Karam Ae Ryung Kim Scott Long Vrinda Marwah Alice M Miller Geetanijali Misra Rasha Moumneh Wanja Muguongo Oliver Phillips Zain Rizvi Mindy Jane Roseman Esteban Restrepo Saldarriaga Tara Zivkovic Made in America Sue Pekarsky Gary,Connie Ulasewicz,1998 Fashion Retailing Jay Diamond, Ellen Diamond, Sheri Litt, 2015-01-29 This comprehensive text focuses on the fashion segment of the retail industry It begins with a broad overview of fashion retailing then focuses on on site and off site environments management and control functions merchandising fashion products and ends with communicating with and servicing the clientele In this new edition the authors focus on the globalization of the retail industry with emphasis on US retail expansion into foreign markets as well as global brands proposed expansion into the US market This edition has been extensively updated to include current trends including sustainable fashion the growth of the multi cultural market and the impact of new technology and e commerce With many engaging photographs and examples to illustrate the concepts Fashion Retailing is ideal for learning the fundamentals of global fashion retailing and the basic business concepts involved New to this Edition All new Chapter 17 on Communicating to Customers Through Electronic Media New Happening Now feature in each chapter covers the latest retailing methods with such items as The Growth of Mobile Commerce Gap s overseas explosion in Latin American Countries and J Crew s global push among many others Full color insert featuring the entire photo program in vibrant color Teaching Resources Instructor s Guide provides suggestions for planning the course and using the text in the classroom supplemental assignments and lecture notes A new Test Bank includes more than 350 questions featuring true false multiple choice short answer or essay questions and midterm and final exam questions PowerPoint presentations include images from the book and provide a framework for lecture and discussion Fashion Advertising and Promotion Jay Diamond, Ellen Diamond, 1999 This basic text explores the advertising and promotion methods used by fashion professionals and the role each method plays in the industry The Greenwood Guide to American Popular Culture: Editorial cartoons through Illustration M.
