Eaton, 2007 Frank Lloyd Wright s Palmer house built in Ann Arbor Michigan in the early 1950s is one of Wright s last residential masterpieces Working from extensive materials gathered by Ann and Leonard Eaton and from his own fifty two year familiarity with the building Grant Hildebrand crafts the story of Billy and Mary Palmer s extraordinary home He presents in detail the events surrounding the Palmers selection of Wright as architect Wright s personal creation of the design the challenges and the craftsmanship of its construction the evolution of its garden and teahouse the role of the house as a setting for the Palmers lives and an analysis of its remarkable formal and spatial qualities With a rich compendium of personal information and an extensive array of photographs plans and diagrams created especially for this book Frank Lloyd Wright s Palmer House offers a comprehensive exploration of a living work of art and an intimate portrait of the people who having brought it into being treasured its presence in their lives for half a century Citing the particular synergies of architect and client house and site Hildebrand situates the heretofore little known Palmer house within the context of Wright s overall oeuvre and presents a convincing argument for the inclusion of the Palmer house in the canon of the architect s finest residential designs Frank Lloyd Wright and the Meaning of Materials Terry L.
