Theatre Lesson Plans Middle School:

Designing Theatre Lesson Plans and a Standards-based Theatre Curriculum Targeting Middle Level Adolescents Carol A. Toney, 2008 Middle level theatre educators those teaching grades six through eight often have difficulty finding resources that connect to adolescent interests and needs that are age and ability appropriate and that align with state educational goals and standards This thesis explores the writing and designing of age appropriate middle level theatre lesson plans a proposed middle level theatre curriculum aligned with the Missouri Show Me Standards and the analysis of available theatre education resources I developed a survey for middle school speech theatre teachers that included questions concerning course offerings curriculum development and student productions Using the results of this survey I compared the North Kansas City School District s middle school theatre program to programs across the state I discovered that while the North Kansas City School District already had a strong middle school theatre program in the areas of teacher certification course offerings and play productions it lacked a strong Missouri Show Me Standards based written curriculum Based on these survey findings I was able to justify my goal of writing a standards based middle school theatre curriculum for the North Kansas City School District Another goal of my research was to analyze theatre textbooks and select one that was most appropriate for middle school theatre I analyzed four textbooks with two textbook review tools These textbook review tools included items such as readability alignment with the speech theatre curriculum graphics and tie into the Missouri Assessment Program test After evaluating each text I ranked the textbooks and choose one to recommend to my district This research project incited a much needed change in the teaching practices and instructional content in the speech theatre program of the North Kansas City School District Further research could be done to encourage reform at the state level to provide stronger support for arts education

Drama and Education Manon van de Water, Mary McAvoy, Kristin Hunt, 2015-02-20 Drama and Education provides a practical comprehensive guide to drama as a tool for teaching and learning. It is among the first practical drama and performance textbooks that address brain based neuroscientific research making the argument that creativity is necessary in our lives that embodied learning is natural and essential and that contextual learning helps us find our place in society in relationship to other peoples and cultures. As well as a historical and theoretical overview of the field it provides rationale and techniques for several specific methodologies: linear drama process oriented drama, drama for social justice and performance art. Each approach is supplemented with sample lesson plans, activities, ideas for differentiation and extensive bibliographies. The topics are discussed from five key angles: Historical and theoretical foundations, Curricular applications, Practical toolkits for a range of classrooms and learning environments, Different strategies for lesson plans, Extension options for longer workshops. Alongside these core methods the integration of other innovative forms from performance art to Theatre of the Oppressed into drama based learning is explored as well as the pragmatic concerns such as assessment planning and advocacy for arts learning and arts education partnerships. Drama and Education is the comprehensive textbook for teachers and students on Applied Theatre and Theatre and Education courses.

Specialty Skills 202 Tracy Lybbert, 2019-06-14 Three Units sold together: Mime, Puppetry, Combat. Theatre and the World Tracy Lybbert, 2019-06-21 Resilient people have an understanding of who they are, what their story has been and is aware of the story of others. Teaching the world through theatre is fun, innovative and strengthening for the individual and the class. Where does a teacher start? And how do you find time to cover the world's history in a middle school class? Giving students glimpses of different cultures at various times is fun and inspires curiosity for self exploration. Students will explore Ancient History BC 500 AD, Greek Post Classical Era 500-1500, The Dark Ages, Europe Early Modern 1500-1700, Noh Theatre Japan, Mid Modern 1700-1900, Germany Contemporary 1914 United States. Tracy Lybbert synthesizes twenty years of theatre notes as a teacher and as a student into these lesson guides and has over ten years of experience teaching theatre and writing curriculum. Material is aligned with the Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) and includes formal and informal assessment procedures, student self reflections and documentation for rehearsals and performance skill development. Your theatre space is your stage and these lesson plans support you in effortlessly leading your classes with expertise and ease.

Specialty Skills 202 Tracy Lybbert, 2019-06-14 This is the student self study guide companion to the teacher lesson plans. Basically that means that the unit organizer, frames, evaluations, forms and reading material are all kept in one place for an easy organization to the learning. In the study guide there are three Units: Pantomime and Mime, Puppetry, Stage Combat. Three units sold in one book covering mime combat and puppetry. Expand your ability to influence audiences with diverse skill sets. Expanding students skill sets and teaching specialized skills becomes an easy and engaging experience with easy to follow lesson plans and skill building activities. Anyone can teach and learn using this text material as a foundational guide.
