Theatre Ritual And Transformation The Senoi Temiars:

Theatre, Ritual and Transformation Sue Jennings, 2018-12-20 Sue Jennings and her three children spent two years on a fieldwork expedition to the Senoi Temiar people of Malaysia. Theatre Ritual and Transformation is a fascinating account of that experience. She describes how the Temiar regularly perform seances which are enacted through dreams, dance, music and drama and explains that they see the seance as playing a valuable preventative role in people's lives as well as being a medium of healing and cure. Her account brings together the insights of drama therapy and theatre with those of social anthropology to provide an invaluable theoretical framework for understanding theatre and ritual and their links with healing.

Routledge International Handbook of Dramatherapy Sue Jennings, Clive Holmwood, 2016-05-20 Routledge
International Handbook of Dramatherapy is the first book of its kind to bring together leading professionals and academics from around the world to discuss their practice from a truly international perspective. Dramatherapy has developed as a profession during the latter half of the twentieth century. Now we are beginning to see its universal reach across the globe in a range of different and diverse approaches. From Australia to Korea to the Middle East and Africa through Europe and into North South America, dramatherapists are developing a range of working practices using the curative power of drama within a therapeutic context to work with diverse and wide-ranging populations. Using traditional texts in the Indian sub-continent, healing performances in the Cameroon, supporting conflict in Israel and Palestine through traditional Comedic theatre in Italy to adolescents in schools and adults with mental ill health, this handbook covers a range of topics that shows the breadth, depth and strength of dramatherapy as a developing and maturing profession. It is divided into four main sections that look at the current international developments in dramatherapy: Theoretical approaches, Specific practice, New and innovative approaches, Offering insights on embodiment, shamanism, anthropology and cognitive approaches coupled with a range of creative theatrical and therapeutic methods. This ground-breaking book is the first congruent analysis of the profession. It will appeal to a wide and diverse international community of educators, academics, practitioners, students, training schools and professionals within the arts, arts education and arts therapies communities. Additionally, it will be of benefit to teachers and departments in charge of pastoral and social care within schools and colleges. Creative Arts Therapies Approaches in Adoption and Foster Care Donna J. Betts, 2003 Creative arts therapists and others who work with children in counseling, nursing, teaching and related fields will find insights on the use of creative arts therapy with adopted children and children in foster care here. Theoretical perspectives and psychological constructs of adoption and foster care are described and approaches to treatment including art, drama, music, play and sand therapies are presented in case study format. An entire section is devoted to transcultural and transracial issues. Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc, Portland, OR, booknews.com

Intercultural Dramatherapy Ditty Dokter, Nisha Sajani, 2022-12-29 The first overarching work on dramatherapy, intercultural practice and research, this book explores the therapeutic encounter between therapists and participants as an intercultural space highlighting how attending to cultural differences informs care Drawing on international voices of practitioners and participants each chapter seeks to explore how social and political struggles such as rising global conservatism nationalism climate crisis increasing displacement and the coronavirus pandemic are experienced in dramatherapy Main themes covered include the development of intercultural good practice guidelines therapist transparency especially through self disclosure and transference issues for the therapist and the negotiation of power relationships across identity differences The book concludes with a section on recommendations for training supervision and practice A resource from which new practice and research can emerge this book will be valuable to dramatherapy educators practitioners and students specifically those interested in intercultural practice Spaces of Spirituality Nadia Bartolini, Sara MacKian, Steve Pile, 2018-02-15 Spirituality is too often subsumed under the heading of religion and treated as much the same kind of thing Yet spirituality extends far beyond the spaces of religion The spiritual makes geography strange challenging the relationship between the known and the unknown between the real and the ideal and prompting exciting possibilities for charting the ineffable spaces of the divine which lie somehow beyond geography In setting itself that task this book pushes the boundaries of geographies of religion to bring into direct focus questions of spirituality By seeing religion through the lens of practice rather than as a set of beliefs geographies of religion can be interpreted much more widely bringing a whole range of other spiritual practices and spaces to light The book is split into three sections each contextualised with an editors introduction to explore the spaces of spiritual practice the spiritual production of space and spiritual transformations This book intends to open to up new questions and approaches through the theme of spirituality pushing the boundaries on current topics and introducing innovative new ideas including esoteric or radical spiritual practices This landmark book not only captures a significant moment in geographies of spirituality but acts as a catalyst for future work Asian Theatre Journal, 2002

Acting For Real Renée Emunah, 2019-09-18 This second edition takes the reader further into the heart of using drama for healing Dr Emunah offers an expanded understanding of her Integrative Five Phase model a foundational approach that embraces the wide spectrum of possibilities within the playing field of drama therapy Grounded by compassionate clinical examples including ones that reach over time into deep seated issues the book offers tools for action oriented treatment embodied therapeutic interventions and creatively engaging a wide variety of clients This comprehensive text also contains over 120 techniques categorized by phases in the session and treatment series and subcategorized by therapeutic objective Process oriented drama therapy with group and individuals as well as performance oriented forms are described in vivid detail New to the second edition is an exploration of drama therapy outside of the clinical arena including dramatic methods in family life and parenting and drama therapy geared toward social change A Theater of the Spirits Supeena Insee Adler, 2010 Theatre History Studies, 1996 Divination and the Shamanic Story Michael Berman, 2008 Stories have traditionally been classified as epics myths sagas legends folk tales fairy tales parables or fables However the definitions of the terms have a tendency to overlap making it difficult to classify and categorize material For this reason a case can be made for the introduction of a new genre termed the shamanic story a story that has either been based on or inspired by a shamanic journey a numinous experience in non ordinary reality or one that contains a number of the elements typical of such a journey Other characteristics include the way in which the stories all tend to contain embedded texts often the account of the shamanic journey itself how the number of actors is clearly limited as one would expect in subjective accounts of what can be regarded as inner journeys and how the stories tend to be used for healing purposes Within this new genre it is proposed that there exists a sub genre shamanic stories that deal specifically with divination and examples are presented and analysed to support this hypothesis By means of textual analysis it can be shown they all share certain attributes in common the identification of which forms the conclusion of the work The Origin of Consciousness in the Social World Charles Whitehead, 2008 Western individualism has delayed scientific recognition of the essentially social nature of consciousness or at least of the human mind and brain This book demonstrates that the origin of consciousness needs to be understood in a social context Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde van Nederlandsch-Indië, 2000 Literatur overzicht issued with v 95 Living on the Periphery Toshihiro Nobuta, 2008 Originally published in Japanese by Kyoto University Press 2004 Temiar-English, English-Temiar Dictionary Nathalie Means, 1998 Current Contents, 1999 Rationalisation and Re-enchantment in Malaysia Geoffrey Benjamin, 1996 Environment and Planning, 2000 International interdisciplinary journal discussing the relations between Society and Space Space is broadly conceived from landscapes of the body to global geographies from cyberspace to old growth forests as metaphorical and material as theoretical construct and empirical fact Covers both practical politics and the abstractions of social theory Shattering Frames Klaus-Peter Köpping, 2002 Minority Cultures of Peninsular Malaysia, 2001 Spirits and Ships Andrea Acri, R. Blench, Alexandra Landmann, 2017 This volume seeks to foreground a borderless history and geography of South Southeast and East Asian littoral zones that would be maritime focused and thereby explore the ancient connections and dynamics of interaction that favoured the encounters among the cultures found throughout the region stretching from the Indian Ocean littorals to the Western Pacific from the early historical period to the present Transcending the artificial boundaries of macro regions and nation states and trying to bridge the arbitrary divide between inherently cosmopolitan high cultures e g Sanskrit Sinitic or Islamicate and local or indigenous cultures this multidisciplinary volume explores the metaphor of Monsoon Asia as a vast geo environmental area inhabited by speakers of numerous language phyla which for millennia has formed an integrated system of littorals where crops goods ideas cosmologies and ritual practices circulated on the sea routes governed by the seasonal monsoon winds The collective body of work presented in the volume describes Monsoon Asia as an ideal theatre for circulatory dynamics of cultural transfer interaction acceptance selection and avoidance and argues that despite the rich ethnic linguistic and sociocultural diversity a shared pattern of values norms and cultural models is discernible throughout the region
