holds immense significance and rich insights for sociologists This original anthology brings together for the first time Burke s key writings on symbols and social relations to offer social scientists access to Burke s thought In his superb introductory essay Joseph R Gusfield traces the development of Burke s approach to human action and its relationship to other similar sources of theory and ideas in sociology he discusses both Burke s influence on sociologists and the limits of his perspective Burke regards literature as a form of human behavior and human behavior as embedded in language His lifework represents a profound attempt to understand the implications for human behavior based on the fact that humans are symbol using animals As this volume demonstrates the work that Burke produced from the 1930s through the 1960s stands as both precursor and contemporary key to recent intellectual movements such as structuralism symbolic anthropology phenomenological and interpretive sociology critical theory and the renaissance of symbolic interaction

Solidarities with the Non/Human, or, Posthumanism in Literature Stefan Herbrechter,2024-11-18 This volume collects essays written over the last decade by one of the founders and leading figures of the theoretical movement of critical posthumanism The readings of literary texts gathered here from Shakespeare Keats Camus Vittorini Kundera Haushofer Atwood Eagleman Crace and DeLillo focus on posthumanist moments in which questions of postanthropocentrism and the nonhuman become prominent are negotiated and ultimately foreclosed They show how a deconstructively minded way of reading humanistically motivated texts can help making these texts relevant for our so called posthuman times In doing so these critical posthumanist readings demonstrate that literature remains one of the privileged cultural institutions and practices from which solidarities both with and between the human and nonhuman can be formed and negotiated The Geographical Journal ,1917 Includes the Proceedings of the Royal geographical society formerly pub separately The Theatre ,1903
