Write opinion pieces on topics or issues, state informative/explanatory texts, compare and contrast subjects & issues

WRITING AN OPINION TEXT

An opinion text tells something or feelings about a topic.
A good opinion text includes:

- an introduction, body, and conclusion
- a statement of a belief or judgment
- evidence that support the belief or judgment
- linking words and phrases to connect the opinion and evidence

An opinion text might also include:

- a statement to explain and justify the writer expects the reader to take
- ICN: People should recycle.
People should work on community projects.
- a statement to explain an action the writer expects the reader not to take
- ICN: People should not throw trash away.
People should not eat unhealthy food.

Examples of opinion writing include:

- opinion letters
- letters or emails to editors or magazines or newspapers

Frame Your Text

Introduction: Your Topic (IC.1.4, IC.2.4, IC.3.2)

- Tell the reader your topic in the introduction or over text.
 - Make your topic clear. This helps the reader understand your opinion.
 - Tell your reader why the topic and opinion are important. This helps reader understand why you're writing about the topic. It also helps reader understand why you believe the opinion.
- Make your introduction interesting. This makes the reader want to keep reading.

Choose general topic There are lots of problems people can work to fix.	Choose interesting topic Water pollution is a serious problem that people can solve together.

Planning in Action: Use a Graphic Organizer to Brainstorm Topics

Your assignment might give you a specific topic. But many assignments give a general topic. Then you must think of a specific topic of your own. You can begin by working with a topic web. You can use a topic web for an opinion text or for other types of writing, including informative and explanatory texts. Start with the general topic or idea in the assignment. Then use a web to come up with ideas. Write every idea that comes to mind. Then look at all your ideas and choose one of the topics. This is a topic web completed by a student.

Now Try This!

Read the following general topics. Then create a topic web of your own. Write down your best ideas for topics. Remember to think of your opinions as you write. Spend five minutes writing your ideas. Then read your ideas. Circle the one you would like to write about.

- Topic:
- Example:
- Writing on a subject you care about

Write an Opinion (IC.1.4, IC.2.4, IC.3.2)

Your opinion is your viewpoint about an issue. How do you feel about the issue? What do you think about the issue? This is your opinion.

- Step 1: Write about the issue you care about.

ICN: People should recycle.
Students should be part of community service projects.

- But it's not always necessary to include the word should when you express an opinion.

ICN: Our school is the best school in the city.
Spring is my favorite season.

It's important to know the difference between a statement of fact and a statement of opinion.

- A statement of fact can be proven true or false.
- ICN: The height of the Empire State Building is 1,250 feet (381 m).
The name of your school is pretty hard to write.
- A statement of opinion cannot be proven true or false.
- ICN: The Empire State Building is the most beautiful building in New York.
Our school is the greatest school in the city.

Statement of Fact can be proven true or false	Statement of Opinion cannot be proven true or false
The capital of California is Sacramento.	California is the best state in the country.
There are five flowers in the bouquet.	This is the prettiest bouquet ever!
Our teacher has a dog in her classroom.	Our classroom is the best in the school.
There is a soccer field on our playground.	Soccer is the hardest sport to play.

What should you do after you write the opinion for your text?
Check the statement you have written. Can the statement be proven true or false?

- If yes, you have written a fact. Facts are not opinions. They are not.
- If no, you have written an opinion. This is good!

Now Try This!

1. Write three statements on your own paper. Circle statements of fact. Underline statements of opinion.

- Produce are the best apples.
- Myron is everyone's favorite kind of entertainment.
- Charles went to school yesterday at 5:45 in the afternoon.
- This book includes the most original ideas in the library.
- There are no mountains in Maine based on our facts.

2. Complete the instructions that follow.

- Write one statement of fact about a place in your town.
- Write one statement of opinion about a place in your town.

Planning in Action: Use a Narrowing Triangle to Narrow the Topic

A topic can help you think of topics related to a general idea. But the topic gives you with might be very broad. This means you'll need to narrow your topic to an opinion. You can use a narrowing triangle to do this. An opinion text on the other types of writing. Begin with the broad topic at the top of the narrowing triangle. Then narrow the topic more and more until you have the opinion for your text. This is a narrowing triangle completed by a student.

Now Try This!

Read the following broad topics. Create a narrowing triangle of your own. Pick any one your selected topic. Write your topic web of your own.

Broad Topics:
People should be cleaner.
Students should be in class.
