Theological Education at Finkenwalde Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2013-10-01 In the spring of 1935 Dietrich Bonhoeffer returned from England to direct a small illegal seminary for the Confessing Church. The seminary existed for two years before the Gestapo ordered it closed in August 1937. This volume includes bible studies, sermons, and lectures on homiletics, pastoral care, and catechesis, giving a moving and up-close portrait of the Confessing Church in these crucial years, the same period during which Bonhoeffer wrote his classics Discipleship and Life Together. Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Neo-Calvinism in Dialogue George Harinck, Brant M. Himes, 2023-11-28 This book is a collection of scholarly essays that place Dietrich Bonhoeffer in conversation with the Dutch Neo-Calvinist tradition of Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck. The essays engage in theological ethics and historical theology in an effort to frame ongoing dialogue in relation to issues of public theology. While Bonhoeffer and Neo-Calvinism represent distinct theological traditions, there is value in placing their respective ideas in conversation for the purposes of creative insight, theological understanding, and practical application. Contributors represent perspectives from North America and the Netherlands. Taken together, the essays offer an important contribution to this unique field of theological inquiry. Bonhoeffer and Christology Matthias Grebe, Nadine Hamilton, Christian Schlenker, 2023-05-18 The key question this volume addresses is how does Bonhoeffer's thought help to rediscover the doctrine of Christ's two natures and one person and understand and renew it in its significance for a modern, post-metaphysical and secular world. The volume takes a fresh look at Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christology and brings it into a fruitful dialogue with current Christological debates. In a multi-perspectival, pluralistic world, Bonhoeffer's thinking offers a productive basis for conceptually incorporating the openness required for this task into academic theology. Bonhoeffer's theology offers a starting point for the recovery of a productive Christology that reflects the plurality of the globalized world, as Bonhoeffer's Christology begins precisely with this integration into worldly reality, whereby the world is understood in its plurality and polyphony. In this way, he characterizes his enterprise as follows: "What keeps gnawing at me is the question: what is Christianity or who is Christ actually for us today?" DBWE 8:362. Accordingly, it opens itself up not only to inner-Christian discussion but also to non-Christian worldviews from which a basic ethical demand follows. Bonhoeffer's Theology of the Cross J. I. de Kijzer, 2019-10-14 Back cover Engaging Bonhoeffer's dialogues with Barth and Heidegger in Act and Being J. I. de Kijzer shows how Bonhoeffer, both in his critical assessment of Barth's dialectic and his appropriation of Heidegger's ontology, articulates a contemporary theological crucis that proves to be deeply influenced by Luther. Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2013 In the spring of 1935 Dietrich Bonhoeffer returned from England to direct a small illegal seminary for the Confessing Church. The seminary existed for two years before the Gestapo ordered it closed in August 1937.

The two years of Finkenwalde's existence produced some of Bonhoeffer's most significant theological work as he prepared these young seminarians for the turbulence and risk of parish ministry in the Confessing Church. Bonhoeffer and his seminarians were under Gestapo surveillance; some of them were arrested and imprisoned. Throughout, he remained dedicated to training them for the ministry and its challenges in a difficult time. This volume includes Bible studies, sermons, and lectures on homiletics, pastoral care, and catechesis, giving a moving and up-close portrait of the Confessing Church in these crucial years, the same period during which Bonhoeffer wrote his classics Discipleship and Life Together.

Forged in Crisis Nancy Koehn, 2017-10-03 A WALL STREET JOURNAL BESTSELLER Five gritty leaders whose extraordinary passion and perseverance changed history: a gripping read on a timeless and timely topic. Angela Duckworth, 1 bestselling author of Grit: An enthralling historical narrative filled with critical leadership insights. Forged in Crisis by celebrated Harvard Business School historian Nancy Koehn spotlights five masters of crisis: polar explorer Ernest Shackleton, President Abraham Lincoln, legendary abolitionist Frederick Douglass, Nazi-resisting clergyman Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and environmental crusader Rachel Carson. What do such disparate figures have in common? Why do their extraordinary stories continue to amaze and inspire? In delivering the answers to those questions, Nancy Koehn offers a remarkable template by which to judge those in our own time to whom the public has given its trust. She begins each of the book's five sections by showing her protagonist on the precipice of a great crisis: Shackleton marooned on an Antarctic ice floe, Lincoln on the verge of seeing the Union collapse, escaped slave Douglass facing possible capture, Bonhoeffer agonizing over how to counter absolute evil with faith, Carson racing against the cancer ravaging her in a bid to save the planet. The narrative then reaches back to each person's childhood and shows the individual growing step by step into the person he or she will ultimately become. Significantly, as we follow each leader's against-all-odds journey, we begin to glean an essential truth: leaders are not born but made. In a book dense with epiphanies, the most galvanizing one may be that the power to lead courageously resides in each of us. Whether it's read as a repository of great insight or as exceptionally rendered human drama, Forged in Crisis stands as a towering achievement.

On Christian Teaching David I. Smith, 2018-05-28 Christian teachers have long been thinking about what content to teach, but little scholarship has been devoted to how faith forms the actual process of teaching. Is there a way to go beyond Christian perspectives on the subject matter and think about the teaching itself as Christian? In this book, David I. Smith shows how faith can and should play a critical role in shaping pedagogy and the learning experience.

The Cross of Reality H. Gaylon Barker, 2015-09-01 The Cross of Reality investigates Bonhoeffer's interpretation and use of Luther's theology in shaping his Christology. In this essay, H. Gaylon Barker uses the theology of the cross as a key to understanding the characteristic elements that make up Bonhoeffer's theology; he also shows how Bonhoeffer's conversation with his teachers and contemporaries, Karl Holl and Karl Barth, in particular, develops Bonhoeffer's thought. What was indeed radical and revolutionary about it was so precisely because of its adherence to the classical traditions of the church, especially Luther's.

Lovin, 1984 This work traces the development of social ethics in European Protestantism from Barth's early dialectical theology ca 1920 through Bonhoeffer's Ethics written during World War II In this development two major approaches to social ethics emerge a theological radicalism championed by Barth which emphasizes the difference between Christian action and ordinary moral reflection and a theological realism exemplified by Brunner and Bonhoeffer which stresses the possibilities for Christian cooperation in making and sustaining the social order A final chapter traces the continuing influence of these approaches in Christian ethics today Book cover Theological Education Underground, 1937-1940 Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2012 This work covers a transitional period in Bonhoeffer's life chronicling his move from illegally training Confessing Church seminarians to becoming an active member of the German resistance Theological Education Underground, 1935-1937 Dietrich Bonhoeffer, John D.
