They Cannot Kill Us All An Eyewitness Account Of South Africa Today:

They Cannot Kill Us All Richard Manning, 1987 Essays on various aspects of South Africa by Newsweek's former Johannesburg bureau Manning was expelled from the country in 1986 as a result of his hard hitting reports on that volatile society

Hope for South Africa Lewis H. Gann, 1991

A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an old South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants on the other side emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography

Breaking Story Gordon S. Jackson, 2019-03-14 This book provides an in depth analysis of the economic difficulties facing journalism including the impact of television's increasing share of the advertising market It focuses on the alternative press which arose in the mid 1980s at the height of the government's crackdown on dissent

Beyond Our Wildest Dreams Ineke van Kessel, 2000 The 1980s in South Africa were marked by protest violent confrontation and international sanctions Internally the country saw a bewildering growth of grassroots organizations including trade unions civic associations in the black townships student and other youth organizations church based groups and women's movements many of which operated under the umbrella of the United Democratic Front UDF Beyond Our Wildest Dreams explores the often conflicted relationship between the UDF's large scale resistance to apartheid and its everyday struggles at the local level In hindsight the UDF can be seen as a transitional front preparing the ground for leaders of the liberation movement to return from exile or prison and take over power But the founding fathers of the UDF initially had far more modest ambitions Interviews with Cachalia and other leading personalities in the UDF examine the organization's workings at the national level while stories of ordinary people collected by the author illuminate the grassroots activism so important to the UDF's success Even in South Africa writes Ineke van Kessel who covered the anti apartheid movement as a journalist resistance was not the obvious option for ordinary citizens Van Kessel shows how these people were mobilized into forming a radical social movement that developed a highly flexible and innovative form of resistance that ultimately ended apartheid From publisher's description

Tradition and Transition in Southern Africa Andrew D. Spiegel, Patrick A. McAllister, This volume brings together many of the most interesting anthropologists writing on the current situation in South Africa Initially conceived as a tribute to the work of Philip Mayer the author of Townsmen and Tribesmen the volume continues a tradition of digging into the interstices of South African society at the folk tribal and national levels Each chapter examines the myriad ways in which tradition is a critical factor for those who must cope with the trauma of social and economic transition This theme central to the work of Philip and Iona Mayer allows the reader to probe the core issues of South Africa and provide a theoretical structure for the study of other societies in similar states of transition to modernity Mother Jones Magazine ,1987-12 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues The ANC and Black Workers in South Africa, 1912-1992 Peter Limb,1993 Identifies over 4 000 information sources on the 80 year struggle against segregation and apartheid in South Africa focusing on the relationship between the main opposition party and black worker organizations in which its main support lay Cites and briefly describes or summarizes books and artic Censored 2015 Mickey Huff,Andy Lee Roth,Project Censored,2014-10-21 Every year since 1976 Project Censored our nation s oldest news monitoring group a university wide project at Sonoma State University founded by Carl Jensen directed for many years by Peter Phillips and now under the leadership of Mickey Huff has produced a Top 25 list of underreported news stories and a book Censored dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship A perennial favorite of booksellers teachers and readers everywhere Censored is one of the strongest life signs of our current collective desire to get the news we citizens need despite what Big Media tells us A South African and American Comparative Reader Andrew Offenburger,Scott Rosenberg,Christopher C.
