Exploring the Internet Using Critical Thinking Skills Debra Jones, 1998. This workbook by an Internet librarian seeks to provide instruction and practice in developing skills to locate a variety of information resources on the Internet, apply critical evaluation to select relevant, good quality data, and identify bias and personal opinion in full-text online material. The eight lessons encompass a basic orientation to the World Wide Web and Netscape basic search techniques, WWW search engines, Internet sources for news, government data, and educational resources, E-mail resources including listservs and Usenet newsgroups, computer use ethics, copyright issues, and guidance in citing digitalized information in footnotes and term paper bibliographies. Basic definitions provided in the text are duplicated in the glossary. Online practice exercises accompany each lesson.
