Thinking Of Christ Proclamation Explanation Meaning:

Thinking of Christ Tatha Wiley, 2003-10-22 This is a textbook on Christology for the undergraduate graduate and seminary market written by eleven distinguished North American Roman Catholic theologians. The structure of the book and of the individual essays follows a pattern of recovery analysis of the tradition, critique, consideration of special problems and reconstruction distinctive Christologies in the contemporary American context. Part I devoted to historical recovery treats Jesus of Nazareth and the significance of historical Jesus research for Christology today. Christological developments resulting in the conciliar definitions of Nicaea and Chalcedon and diverse conceptions of Christ's redemption in the early and medieval church. Part II treats four problems in modern debate: religious pluralism and Christian exclusivist claims; theological anti-Semitism embedded in Christological formulations; legitimation of male privilege via appeals to the masculinity of Jesus and Christ's headship of the church; the use of the Christ symbol to legitimate colonialism and racial exploitation. Finally, Part III offers two examples of contemporary Christologies of social transformation: mujerista Christology and black Christology. Contributors: Lisa Sowle Cahill, Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, Roger Haight, Ada Maria Isasi Diaz, Robert Lassalle Klein, William Loewe, John Pawlikowski, Jamie Phelps, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Gerard Sloyan, and Tatha Wiley.

Israel, the Church, and Millenarianism Steven D. Aguzzi, 2017-07-28 Since the calls of the Second Vatican Council, Roman Catholic theologians have sought to overcome an overarching problem facing Jewish-Christian relations: the concept of supersessionism, the idea that God has revoked the spiritual and historical promises made to the Jewish people in favour of granting those same privileges to a predominantly Gentile Church. Israel, the Church, and Millenarianism breaks new ground by applying an ancient principle to the problem of Israel's replacement: the early Church's promotion of millennialism. Utilizing the best in Patristic research, Aguzzi argues that these earliest Christian traditions made room for the future of Israel because Christ's reign in the Church was viewed as provisional to his historical reign on earth. Israel's role in salvation history was and is not yet complete. Aguzzi's research also opens the door for a greater Catholic understanding of the millennial principle, not shying away from its validity and relevance for understanding the importance of safeguarding Jewish particularity while concluding that the Synagogue and the Church are indeed on a parallel trajectory: what will their Israel's acceptance be but life from the dead? Romans 11:15. Ultimately, the divine will is fulfilled through both Christian and Jewish means in history while each community is dependent in different ways upon the unfolding of God's future and the coming Parousia of Christ.

Un/familiar Theology Susannah Cornwall, 2017-06-15 Through engagement with theologies of adoption, pro-natalism, marriage and queer theology, Susannah Cornwall figures developments in models of marriage and family not as distortions of or divergences from the divinely ordained blueprint but as developments already of a piece with these institutions being. Much Christian theological discussion of family, sex and marriage seems to claim that they are or should be unchanging and immaculate; that to celebrate their shifting and developing natures is to reject them as good gifts of God.

However models of marriage family parenting and reproduction have changed and are still in some cases radically changing These changes are not all a raging tide to be turned back but in continuity with goods deeply embedded in the tradition Alternative forms of marriage and family stand as signs of the hope of the possibility of change Changed institutions such as same sex marriage are new beginnings with the potential to be fruitful and generative in their own right In them humans create new imaginaries which more fully acknowledge the interactive nature of our relationships with the world and the divine
