This Bridge We Call Home Gloria Anzaldúa, AnaLouise Keating, 2002 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company This Bridge We Call Home Gloria Anzaldúa, AnaLouise Keating, 2002 More than twenty years after the ground breaking anthology This Bridge Called My Back called upon feminists to envision new forms of communities and practices Gloria E Anzaldúa and AnaLouise Keating have painstakingly assembled a new collection of over eighty original writings that offers a bold new vision of women of color consciousness for the twenty first century Written by women and men both of color and white this bridge we call home will challenge readers to rethink existing categories and invent new individual and collective identities This Bridge We Call Home Gloria Anzaldúa, AnaLouise Keating, 2002 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Transforming Otherness Peter Nynas, 2017-07-28 Today people in different situations and contexts face intercultural challenges These are a result of increasing mobility Sometimes such challenges are brought about by crisis situations and an international labor market However people also come in contact with each other through forms of new technology such as the Internet and through literature and film In these multicultural encounters misunderstandings and sometimes clashes are experienced This volume presents studies in culture communication and language all of which strive through a variety of theoretical perspectives to develop understanding of such challenges and perhaps offer practical solutions Encountering otherness may evoke fears negative attitudes and a corresponding will to dismiss the otherness in front of us either consciously or unconsciously This denial of otherness may also be subtle Thinking about otherness as described in this volume also raises questions about how otherness is represented and mediated and about the possible role of third parties in facilitating communication in such situations Sometimes a third party can play a crucial role in facilitating the communication process and serve as a channel of communication Trust in humanity as a bridge to community requires a subtle balance between representations of self and other Various problems arise in intercultural mediation which may be caused by cultural and political differences and these are sometimes used to validate stereotypical beliefs and images The editors argue that in both academic and art circles European perspectives have widely been understood as universal Women in Culture Bonnie Kime Scott, Susan E. Cayleff, Anne Donadey, Irene Lara, 2016-08-01 The thoroughly revised Women in Culture 2 e explores the intersections of gender race sexuality gender identity and spirituality from the perspectives of diverse global locations Its strong humanities content including illustrations and creative writing uniquely embraces the creative aspects of the field Each of the ten thematic chapters lead to creative readings introducing a more Readings throughout the text encourage intersectional thinking amongst students humanistic angle than is typical of textbooks in the field This textbook is queer inclusive and allows students to engage with postcolonial decolonial thinking spirituality and reproductive environmental justice A detailed timeline of feminist history criticism and theory is provided and the glossary encourages the development of critical vocabulary A variety of illustrations supplement the written materials and an accompanying website offers instructors pedagogical resources

The Intersectional Approach Michele Tracy Berger, Kathleen Guidroz, 2010-01-01 Intersectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guides new and established researchers to engage in a critical reflection about the broad adoption of intersectionality that constitutes what the editors call a new social literacy for scholars In eighteen essays contributors examine various topics of interest to students and researchers from a feminist perspective as well as through their respective disciplines looking specifically at gender inequalities related to globalization health motherhood sexuality body image and aging Together these essays provide a critical overview of the paradigm highlight new theoretical and methodological advances and make a strong case for the continued use of the intersectional approach both within the borders of women s and gender studies and beyond Contributors Lidia Anchisi Gettysburg College Naomi Andre University of Michigan Jean Ait Belkhir Southern University at New Orleans Michele Tracy Berger University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Kia Lilly Caldwell University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Elizabeth R Cole University of Michigan Kimberle Crenshaw University of California Los Angeles Bonnie Thornton Dill University of Maryland Michelle Fine Graduate Center City University of New York Jennifer Fish Old Dominion University Mako Fitts Seattle University Kathleen Guidroz Mount St Mary s University Ivette Guzman Zavala Lebanon Valley College Kaaren Haldeman Durham North Carolina Catherine E Harnois Wake Forest University AnaLouise Keating Texas Woman s University Rachel E Luft University of New Orleans Gary K Perry Seattle University Jennifer Rothchild University of Minnesota Morris Ann Russo DePaul University Natalie J Sabik University of Michigan Jessica Holden Sherwood University of Rhode Island Yvette Taylor University of Newcastle United Kingdom Nira Yuval Davis University of East London

Are You Mixed? Sonia E. Janis, 2016-02-01 In Are You Mixed Sonia Janis explores the spaces in between race and place from the perspective of an educator who is multi racial As she reflects on her own experiences as a seventh grade student up to her eventual appointment as a school administrator she learns of the complexity of situating oneself in predetermined demographic categories She shares how she explores the intricacies of undefined spaces that teach her to embrace differences contradictions and complexities in schools neighborhoods and communities Exploring the in betweenness Anzaldúa He 2003 2010 of her life as a multi race person problematizes imbedded notions of race gender class and power The power of this memoir lies in its narrative possibilities to capture the contradictions and paradoxes of lives in between race and place to honor the subtleties fluidities and complexities of such experience and to cultivate understanding towards individual experience and the multicultural multiracial contexts that shape and are shaped by such experience He 2003 p xvii This memoir creates new ways to think about and write about in between experience and their relevance to multicultural and multiracial education Janis challenges educators teachers administrators and policy makers to view the educational experience of students with multiracial multicultural and multilingual backgrounds by shattering predetermined categories and stereotyped classifications and looking into unknown and fluid realms of the in betweenness of their lives This challenge helps create equitable and just opportunities and engender culturally responsive and inspiring curricular and learning environments to bring out the best potential in all diverse schools communities neighborhoods tribes and societies

Underserved Women of Color, Voice, and Resistance Sonja M. Brown Givens, Keisha Edwards Tassie, 2014-03-20 Contemporary research on the lives and experiences of women of color tends to neglect the influence of women's perceived access to voice as they manage tensions related to race class and gender Underserved Women of Color Voice and Resistance Claiming a Seat at the Table contributes to current dialogues that construct Black Feminist Theory as active critical engagement within dominant American institutions that oppress women of color in their daily lives Women of color face unique social challenges that exist at the intersections of race gender class and sexual orientation While some challenges are common to women of color others reflect the distinct journey each woman makes as she negotiates her identity within her family professional circle social and romantic relationships and community The editors have constructed a rich collection of voices in this work exploring the politics of women of color across various social contexts Bitch, 2003 Power Lines Aimee Carrillo Rowe, 2008-09-25 Argues for the importance of understanding identity as relational rather than static in encouraging feminist alliances across race class and ethnicity Feminist Collections, 2003 Phoebe, 2009 Ways of Reading David Bartholomae, Anthony Petrosky, Stacey Waite, 2019-08-22 Reading and writing is difficult messy work Ways of Reading embraces this challenge by inviting students into the process and treating them with respect Based on the concept that texts should be considered in relation to each other Ways of Reading fosters academic habits of mind as it carefully walks students through analyzing and writing about complicated ideas With deeply thought provoking readings from writers like Ta Nehisi Coates Judith Butler and Anna Tsing combined with a supporting structure of sequenced questions for rereading discussion and writing Ways of Reading empowers students to engage with complex material and difficult concepts A robust introduction to critical reading coverage of writing beyond the traditional essay and assignment sequences all help instructors make the classroom a place of intellectual exploration This is a book that asks instructors and students to do more to approach difficulty as multi dimensional in conceptual historical narrative and practical aspects And especially in this edition with new readings on topics such as white rage ethical relationships and sexual violence this work pays off preparing students to address as community members citizens and future leaders the urgent problems that cannot be ignored and that soon will be theirs alone to solve Doing the Public Good Kenneth P González, Raymond V.

Padilla, 2008 How can scholars reconnect themselves and their students to higher education's historic but much diluted mission to work for the public good Through the lenses of personal reflection and auto ethnography and drawing on such rich philosophical foundations as the Spanish tradition of higher learning the holistic Aztec concept of education the Hispanic notion of bien educado and the activist principles of the Chicano movement these writers explore the intersections of private and public good and how the tension between them has played out in their own lives and the commitments they have made to their intellectual community and to their cultural and family communities Through often lyrical memoirs reflections and poetry these authors recount their personal journeys and struggles often informed by a spiritual connectedness and always driven by a concern for social justice and show how they have found individual paths to promoting the public good in their classrooms and in the world beyond Contributors include Jennifer Ayala Dolores Delgado Bernal Flora V Rodriguez Brown Kenneth P Gonzales Miguel Guajardo Francisco Guajardo Aida Hurtado Maria A Hurtado Arcelia L Hurtado Raymond V Padilla Caroline Sotello Viernes Turner and Luis Urrieta Jr Remembering the Brave Women Shirley Lopez, 2004

Sinister Wisdom, 2006 Women Studies Abstracts, 2004 Women: Images & Realities, A Multicultural Anthology Amy Kesselman, Lily D McNair, Nancy Schniedewind, 2008 This best selling anthology is a unique introduction to feminism and women's studies It presents a multidisciplinary collection of academic essays and analyses personal narratives and fiction and poetry about women's lives The selections illustrate the variety of women's experiences primarily in the United States considering both commonalities and differences among women and appreciating women's diverse approaches to living and fostering change Islamophobia and the Question of Muslim Identity Evelyn Leslie Hamdon, 2010 This book is a critical analysis of a Muslim group in Canada that has been working to challenge Islamophobia in their community An important part of their anti racist work involves dealing with the internal conflicts and dilemmas created by the differences among the members of the group The coalition has been successful in developing several educational initiatives in part because they have been able to negotiate internal differences in ways that do not fragment the group Through discussions with members of the coalition the author explores the tensions that arise from these internal differences and in doing so demonstrates the diversity of Muslim identity and challenges the stereotypical image that has permeated the West for centuries Pub desc
