Suborders Oligophreata (concluded) and Macrophreata* Austin Hobart Clark, 1947 Research Handbook on Art and Law Jani McCutcheon, Fiona McGaughey, 2020-01-31 Featuring international contributions from leading and emerging scholars this innovative Research Handbook presents a panoramic view of how law sees visual art and how visual art sees law It resists the conventional approach to art and law as inherently dissonant one a discipline preoccupied with rationality certainty and objectivity the other a creative enterprise ensconced in the imaginary and inviting multiple unique and subjective interpretations Blending these two distinct disciplines this unique Research Handbook bridges the gap between art and law

"Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950-1965" Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market The First Proofs of the Universal Catalogue of Books on Art Compiled for the Use of the National Art Library and the Schools of Art in the United Kingdom by Order of the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education John Hungerford Pollen,1870 Australian Limited Edition Art Books Robert Holden,1984
