Three Letter Plague A Young Mans Journey Through A Great Epidemic:

Three-Letter Plague Jonny Steinberg, 2010-11-22 At the age of 29 Sizwe Magadia is among the most handsome well educated and richest of the men in his poverty stricken village in rural Transkei Dr Hermann Reuter a son of old South West African stock wants to prove to the world that if you provide decent treatment people will come and get it no matter their circumstances Already Sizwe has watched several neighbours grow ill and die yet he remains reluctant to establish his own HIV status When Hermann establishes an antiretroviral treatment programme in Sizwe s village these figures from two different worlds collide one afraid that people will turn their backs on medical care the other fearful of the advent of a world in which respect for traditional ways has been lost and privacy has been obliterated The resulting antagonism mirrors a continent wide battle against an epidemic that has corrupted souls as much as bodies In this eye opening compassionate searing and beautifully written account Steinberg seeks to understand the AIDS crisis in South Africa As he grapples to get closer to answers that remain maddeningly just out of reach he realises that he must look within to unravel some of the enigma surrounding the greatest African disaster of our times

Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care to increase the availability of quality person focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones Thornber s Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature world literature the medical humanities and the health humanities Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center part of their conversations on Covid 19 Read an interview with Thornber on Brill s Humanities Matter blog

Encounter in Pastoral Care and Spiritual Healing Daniël Johannes Louw, Takaaki David Ito, Ulrike Elsdörfer, 2012 The International Council on Pastoral Care and Counseling ICPCC met in August 2011 in Rotorua New Zealand for its 9th International Congress Various discussions in the field arose from actual challenges such as the earthquake in Japan social changes and mainly deprivations all over the world The ICPCC offers guidelines on how to cope with these situations which also include the indigenous traditions of the Maori culture projects on inter religious encounter etc all of which provoke a rethinking of traditional spirituality The Congress proceedings are presented in this book as a state of discussion within this globalized network Series Theologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 33

Developing a Plan for the Planet Ian Chambers, John Humble, 2017-03-02 The world struggles with increasing threats to global sustainability caused by population growth overuse of fresh water resources depletion of biodiversity and reliance on non renewable energy sources There is an urgent need for an overall plan to address these challenges in a coordinated and effective manner Whether in government business community or as an individual we need to begin acting a lot smarter faster and more collaboratively if we are going to avert the potential devastating impacts on this planet Plan for the Planet outlines a co ordinated approach to tackling the global challenges we face which can be implemented at every level Using proven business management wisdom and principles this book provides perhaps the most comprehensive and robust framework within which business government and the community can work together to build a sustainable world Whether you want to understand how to prepare your organisation and yourself to deal successfully with the global challenges or seize the opportunities which are fast developing with the emergence of the sustainability revolution you will benefit from reading this timely book

Thin Blue Jonny Steinberg, 2008 In this provocative new book Steinberg argues that policing in crowded urban space is like theatre Only here the audience writes the script and if the police don't perform the right lines the spectators throw them off the stage Several months before they exploded into xenophobic violence Jonny Steinberg travelled the streets of Alexandra Reiger Park and other Johannesburg townships with police patrols His mission was to discover the unwritten rules of engagement emerging between South Africa s citizens and its new police force In vivid and eloquent prose Steinberg takes us into the heart of this drama and picks apart the rules South Africans have established for the policing of their communities What emerges is a lucid and original account of a much larger matter the relationship between ordinary South Africans and the government they have elected to rule them The government and its people are like scorned lovers Steinberg argues their relationship brittle moody untrusting and ultimately very needy

HIV/AIDS and Society in South Africa Angela Ndinga-Muvumba, Robyn Pharoah, 2008 Do we know how HIV AIDS may affect different sectors of society possibly altering the course set for development This book presents a multidisciplinary overview of the discourse on HIV AIDS and explores the concept of human security and the global development agenda
