World Social Forum Challenging Empires:

World Social Forum Peter Waterman, Jai Sen, 2009 Experimenting with politics that can cope with uncertainty

Handbook on World Social Forum Activism Jackie Smith, Ellen Reese, Scott Byrd, Elizabeth Smythe, 2015-11-17 The World Social Forum WSF has become the focus for a diverse array of movements advancing alternative visions of globalisation The numerous WSF s have helped to connect activists in an increasingly dense network of advocates for radical social change They have mobilised hundreds of thousands of people and may be one of the most important political developments of our time The Handbook of World Social Forum Activism brings together leading scholars of the social forum process from North America and Europe The collection contributes to the ongoing process of reflection from the WSF experience and is accessible to activists students and scholars alike

The World and U. S. Social Forums Judith Blau, Marina Karides, 2009-05-01 Since its first meeting in 2001 in Porto Alegre Brazil the World Social Forum U S Social Forum has worked towards imagining and implementing alternatives to the world as we know it by creating opportunities for its participants to build social networks mobilize resources voice their experiences of oppression exchange ideas and express their desire for a more equitable and reciprocal world The WSF USSF is dedicated to advancing the rights of all peoples including women indigenous groups and minorities and it subscribes to the ideals of participatory democracy social and cultural pluralism and the end of market tyranny In this edited volume Blau and Karides bring together a plurality of voices to offer a fresh perspective on the WSF USSF as both an organization and as a force for social and political change It is a useful resource for those familiar with the organization and an essential guide for those who wish to participate

Global Democracy and the World Social Forums Jackie Smith, Marina Karides, Marc Becker, Dorval Brunelle, Christopher Chase-Dunn, Donatella Della Porta, 2015-11-17 The World Social Forum quickly became the largest political gathering in human history and continues to offer a direct challenge to the extreme inequities of corporate led globalisation It has expanded its presence and continues to be an exciting experiment in global and participatory democracy The book s contributors have participated in World Social Forums around the globe Recounting dozens of dramatic firsthand experiences they draw on their knowledge of global politics to introduce the process its foundations and relevance to ongoing transnational efforts toward democracy This second edition of Global Democracy shows how the Forums have developed since their inception in 2001 and how they are now connected with other global movements including Occupy the Arab Spring and beyond

Global Civil Society 2005/6 Helmut K Anheier, Marlies Glasius, Mary Kaldor, 2005-11-05 The Global Civil Society Yearbook is the standard work on all aspects of contemporary global civil society for activists practitioners students and academics alike

The Global Politics of Globalization Barry K. Gills, 2013-09-13 Are we moving inexorably towards a new empire or is global civil society transforming global politics into a new cosmopolis In The Global Politics of Globalization the alternatives of Empire and Cosmopolis are counter poised as representative of two antithetical conceptions and practices of world order both historically and in the present era and each expresses an alternative idea of human unity and community Today global politics is embroiled in a clash of globalizations a clash between these two opposed forms of world order The contributions in the debate range from deep historical reflections on world civilizations critique of neoliberal economics and imperialism new thinking on the ideals and practices of global citizenship the philosophical basis for cosmopolitan politics and the emergence of new forms of global social forces and movements Previously published as a special issue of Globalizations this book brings together a very distinguished set of contributors to explore and debate the relationship between globalization processes and world order in light of recent controversies over the return of empire

Globalization and Contestation Ronaldo Munck, 2006-12-08 Globalization is undoubtedly the great overarching paradigm of our era However there is still little agreement on what globalization actually is and some do not accept that it is anything at all This new book addresses the contestation of globalization by the anti or counter globalization movement To contest means to challenge to call into question to doubt to oppose and to litigate This study shows how globalization is contestable in many different ways and how the counter movements we have seen emerging over the last decade also bear witness on behalf of an alternative human future Ronaldo Munck presents an overarching framework that allows us to understand how globalization and its contestation are inextricably bound up with one another This volume insightfully explores a number of case studies including the battle of Seattle in 1999 the World Social Forum peasant internationalism environmental movements and reactionary movements including the US Patriot s movement Islamic fundamentalist movements and other nationalist movements Globalization and Contestation will be of great interest to all students and scholars of international relations politics and of globalization and global governance in particular

Global Activism Ruth Reitan, 2007-01-24 This comprehensive study traces the transnationalization of activist networks analyzing their changing compositions and characters and examining the roles played by the World Social Forum in this process Comparing four of the largest global networks targeting the neoliberal triumvirate of the World Bank the IMF and the World Trade Organization the Jubilee anti debt campaigners Via Campesina peasant farmers Our World Is Not For Sale and the anarchistic Peoples Global Action Written by a scholar activist the book highlights that despite their diversity these collective actors follow a similar globalizing path and that networks in which solidarity is based on a shared identity perceived as threatened by neoliberal change are gaining strength Social forums are depicted as a fertile ground to strengthen networks and a common ground for cooperative action among them but also a battleground over the future of the forum process the global anti neoliberal struggle and other possible worlds in the making Global Activism will appeal to students and scholars interested in globalization international relations IPE and social movements

Movements of Movements Jai Sen, 2018-02-01 Our world today is not only a world in crisis but also a world in profound movement with increasing numbers of people joining or forming movements local national transnational and global The dazzling diversity of ideas and experiences recorded in this collection captures something of the

fluidity within campaigns for a more equitable planet This book taking internationalism seriously without tired dogmas provides a bracing window into some of the central ideas to have emerged from within grassroots struggles from 2006 to 2010 The essays here cross borders to look at the politics of caste class gender religion and indigeneity and move from the local to the global Rethinking Our Dance the second of two volumes offers a wide range of essays from frontline activists in Afghanistan Argentina Brazil Niger and Taiwan as well as from Europe and North America that address the question What do we need to do in order to bring about justice and peace The Movements of Movements aims to make the bewildering range of contemporary movements more meaningful to the observer and also to be a space where global movements speak to each other This book will be useful to all who work for egalitarian social change be they in universities parties trade unions social movements or religious organisations Contributors include Kolya Abramsky Ezequiel Adamovsky Ousseina Alidou Samir Amin Chris Carlsson John Brown Childs Lee Cormie Anila Daulatzai Massimo De Angelis The Free Association David Graeber Josephine Ho John Holloway Fran ois Houtart Jeffrey Juris Michael L wy Tom s Mac Sheoin Matt Meyer Muto Ichiyo Rodrigo Nunes Michal Osterweil Shailja Patel Geoffrey Pleyers Stephanie Ross and Nicola Yeates Talking New Politics ,2005 In the run up to the fourth World Social Forum held in Mumbai India in January 2004 civil activists and students organised a major series of seminars in Delhi University to discuss the Forum and its politics The Open Space seminar series as it came to be called picked up on the idea of the Forum as a relatively free space where all kinds of ideas could meet and be discussed These books explore the new ideas generated by the discussions Can the World Social Forum the authors ask help us to conceptualise and actualise a new politics Can this new politics be free from violence Can the experience and knowledge of great movements such as the movement for the environment and the women s movement contribute to the creation of a new politics How can such a politics be sustained These volumes offer the reader different and complex ways of understanding the processes that have helped to shape the World Social Forum and the new politics that seems to be emerging
