Worst Person Ever A Novel:

Worst. Person. Ever. Douglas Coupland, 2013-10-08 Douglas Coupland's gloriously filthy side splittingly funny and unforgettable new novel his first full length work of fiction in four years Worst Person Ever is a deeply unworthy book about a dreadful human being with absolutely no redeeming social value Raymond Gunt in the words of the author is a living walking talking hot steaming pile of pure id He's a B unit cameraman who enters an amusing downward failure spiral that takes him from London to Los Angeles and then on to an obscure island in the Pacific where a major American TV network is shooting a Survivor style reality show Along the way Gunt suffers multiple comas and unjust imprisonment is forced to reenact the Angry Dance from the movie Billy Elliot and finds himself at the centre of a nuclear war We also meet Raymond's upwardly failing sidekick Neal as well as Raymond's ex wife Fiona herself an atomic bomb of pain Even though he really puts the anti in anti hero you may find Raymond Gunt an oddly likeable character It Takes a Storyteller to Know a Storyteller Julia

Nikiel, 2023-01-23 If it is indeed impossible to think beyond capitalism then capital has become reality If global capitalism organizes reality through the stories it weaves capital is as strong as its fictions If capital is reality and capital is fiction then reality as such is fiction as well It is by reading this fiction for both patterns and inconsistencies that contemporary individuals can challenge global capital and unveil its hypocrisies and it is by fighting fiction with fiction i.e. projecting new realities such as those in the post millennial novels by William Gibson Douglas Coupland and Dave Eggers that people can imagine the world anew Harvard Square: A Novel André Aciman, 2013-04-08 An Egyptian Jewish Harvard graduate student trying to assimilate into American culture in 1977 befriends an impetuous loud Arab cab driver and must choose between his dream or his friend This is a tale of the wages of assimilation a moving story of an immigrant's remembered youth and the nearly forgotten costs and sacrifices of becoming an American It is the fall of 1977 and amid the lovely leafy streets of Cambridge a young Harvard graduate student a Jew from Egypt longs more than anything to become an assimilated American and a professor of literature He spends his days in a pleasant blur of seventeenth century fiction but when he meets a brash charismatic Arab cab driver in a Harvard Square cafe everything changes Nicknamed Kalashnikov Kalaj for short for his machine gun vitriol the cab driver roars into the student's life with his denunciations of the American obsession with all things jumbo and ersatz Twinkies monster television sets all you can eat buffets and his outrageous declarations on love and the art of seduction The student finds it hard to resist his new friend's magnetism and before long he begins to neglect his studies and live a double life one in the rarified world of Harvard the other as an exile with Kalaj on the streets of Cambridge Together they carouse the bars and cafes around Harvard Square trade intimate accounts of their love affairs argue about the American dream and skinny dip in Walden Pond But as final exams loom and Kalaj has his license revoked and is threatened with deportation the student faces the decision of his life whether to cling to his dream of New World assimilation or risk it all to defend his Old World friend Tales and Novels Maria Edgeworth, 1874 The
