In the Darkroom Susan Faludi, 2016-06-14 A Pulitzer Prize winner's memoir of her search for her enigmatic father is an absolute stunner probing steel nerved moving in ways you'd never expect New York Times In the summer of 2004 I set out to investigate someone I scarcely knew my father The project began with a grievance the grievance of a daughter whose parent had absconded from her life I was in pursuit of a scofflaw an artful dodger who had skipped out on so many things obligation affection culpability contrition I was preparing an indictment amassing discovery for a trial But somewhere along the line the prosecutor became a witness So begins Susan Faludi's extraordinary inquiry When the feminist writer learned that her 76 year old father long estranged and living in Hungary had undergone sex reassignment surgery her investigation turned personal and urgent How was this new parent who identified as a complete woman now connected to the silent explosive and ultimately violent father she had known Faludi chases that mystery into the recesses of her suburban childhood and her father's many previous incarnations American dad Alpine mountaineer swashbuckling adventurer in the Amazon outback Jewish fugitive in Holocaust Budapest Her struggle to come to grips with her father's metamorphosis takes her across borders historical political religious sexual to bring her face to face with the question of the age Is identity something you choose or is it the very thing you can't escape Riveting Ms Faludi unfolds her father's story like the plot of a detective novel Wall Street Journal Penetrating and lucid rich and arresting New York Times Book Review A gripping exploration of sexual national and ethnic identity Kirkus Reviews starred review Journey of Discovery F.P.

Gonzalez, 2021-07-14 Joining the huddled group Balthasar ordered We are going to need to run into the storm but we need to link hands to keep from getting separated Quickly everyone come together and get close Wait Omid yelled He pulled out a rope from one of the bags Everyone instinctively grabbed a section of it firmly With Justin's permission the young man then tied one end of the rope around the soldier's waist to connect him to the group The veteran continued to counterfire with his bow while walking backward with the group With Balthasar leading they started to run into the vertical barrier of dirt sand and pebbles that rose menacingly before them Holding the other end of the rope the Ethiopian mobad wrapped it once quickly around his waist and tied it into a knot although the thickness of the rope and his makeshift gloves prevented him from tightening it securely With both hands free he tried to cover his face as best as he could as he led the group into the tempest The strength of the wind prevented him from moving quickly so his run turned into a forced walk He felt the temperature suddenly drop with bits of flying debris whirling around trying to make their way into any loose garments and irritate any exposed skin Arrows continued to fly but the winds redirected their trajectory With eyes closed and breathing filtered by the last minute wrappings over noses and mouths the travelers entered blindly into the storm Providence: The Journey, the Discovery, and the Destination Franklin Walters, 2008-09-29 Providence The Journey the Discovery and the Destination is a true story It is an inspirational story that depicts the revelations that a man named William Francis experienced over the course of his life William came to realize how the LORD GOD was working in his life finally understanding why HE led him through what he perceived to be deserts and wildernesses at various stages of his life It demonstrates how God showed him that even when he felt abandoned and unloved that it was indeed HE the LORD GOD Almighty who had brought him through those places Along the way he makes discoveries that enhance his and his family's lives through divine revelations about where God was leading him his destination William's journey began at a very young age His was the journey of a restless soul whose destination would be the discovering of the truth about the real JESUS In the process he discovers the truth about himself and his true purpose in life William would encounter many trials tribulations and disappointments on his journey but he would ultimately come to a place of acceptance with himself And eventually he would come to experience a genuine personal relationship with GOD a relationship which produced times of happiness and joy perpetual love and internal peace of mind and relief of conscience even in times of crisis In hindsight William realized that GOD was guiding and directing his path All the while GOD was teaching him how to live a fulfilled life Though some of the lessons were hard learned it was all for his good The Journey to Self-Discovery Ralph Adkins, 2025-10-27 A Flicker in the Fog Not everything broken is meant to be discarded Not every detour is a mistake And sometimes what you've been running from is what's been guiding you home This isn't a book of tidy answers It's a lantern Quietly handed to you at the edge of the unknown Inside these pages are stories raw untamed alive They don't sparkle and vanish They smolder They strip away what's false and ignite what's been buried You won't find instructions here Only echoes Fragments of truth you might've heard before in the stillness in the ache you couldn't name These words don't shout They whisper They walk beside you through the fog stirring things you forgot you were searching for Old lies may crumble New eyes may open And through it all a quiet Presence never far never forcing waits So crack the spine Let the stories speak And don't be surprised when something ancient honest and full of wonder flickers to life Common Threads Adele Flood, 2014-10-16 Common Threads explores ideas of artistic identity and memory contained within the narrated stories of ten textile artists It reveals how individuals bring a sense of linearity to fragments of memory and create a cohesive sense of self through telling their life's story By employing a systems model the author constructs new ideas of interrogating identity and art practice The model Constructing Personal Narratives brings into focus the hermeneutic circle of learning and identifies the importance and need to provide opportunities for lifelong learning The stories told by the participants who returned to the formal education sector later in life reveal the profound effects adult learning had upon their lives The writer reveals how the model generated the interview questions that provided the rich biographical content that emerged within dialogues The common threads of experience and feelings of the ten participants and the author are revealed and from these emerge deepened understandings of both the place of stories within our lives and how stories can further an understanding of what it means to be an artist Emerging from these stories are implications for teaching practice these are presented as observations and questions in terms of how educators should be part of the learning experience with those they educate
