The Goat World, 1929 Utopia: Or, The Happy Republic Saint Thomas More, 1838 Zhuangzi and the Happy Fish Roger T. Ames, Takahiro Nakajima, 2015-03-31 The Zhuangzi is a deliciously protean text it is concerned not only with personal realization but also albeit incidentally with social and political order In many ways the Zhuangzi established a unique literary and philosophical genre of its own and while clearly the work of many hands it is one of the finest pieces of literature in the classical Chinese corpus It employs every trope and literary device available to set off rhetorically charged flashes of insight into the most unrestrained way to live one's life free from oppressive conventional judgments and values The essays presented here constitute an attempt by a distinguished community of international scholars to provide a variety of exegeses of one of the Zhuangzi's most frequently rehearsed anecdotes often referred to as the Happy Fish debate The editors have brought together essays from the broadest possible compass of scholarship offering interpretations that range from formal logic to alternative epistemologies to transcendental mysticism Many were commissioned by the editors and appear for the first time Some of them have been available in other languages Chinese Japanese German Spanish and were translated especially for this anthology And several older essays were chosen for the quality and variety of their arguments formulated over years of engagement by their authors All however demonstrate that the Zhuangzi as a text and as a philosophy is never one thing indeed it has always been and continues to be many different things to many different people

The Happy Traveler Kathryn M. Hilton,2007-06-12 A day by day account of a woman traveling alone across the country in one direction or the other and what she saw or encountered along the way Getting in the car and hitting the highway is something the author has always loved to do This book contains personal trip logs of cross country trips from 1996 to the present time and includes a few side trips The near accidents funny signs how she amused and entertained herself on long boring stretches of highway some of the places she ate motels she stayed in and even the thoughts she had make interesting reading especially for an armchair traveler Traveling through storms or zigzagging between Interstate highways to avoid them and other decisions she made on the road are things any traveler can relate to Going out of the way in order to travel through country areas never seen before along roads never previously driven or being on some backroad for awhile were things she did not hesitate to do when the urge came to leave the current route Fast foods fast lanes and fast airplanes yet a leisurely pace prevailed when there was something of interest that required slowing down and taking a second look or changing to a different route An armchair traveler will find her trip logs to be both interesting and entertaining
