A Feeling of Belonging Shirley Jennifer Lim, 2006 When we imagine the activities of Asian American women in the mid twentieth century our first thoughts are not of skiing beauty pageants magazine reading and sororities Yet Shirley Jennifer Lim argues these are precisely the sorts of leisure practices many second generation Chinese Filipina and Japanese American women engaged in during this time In A Feeling of Belonging Lim highlights the cultural activities of young predominantly unmarried Asian American women from 1930 to 1960 This period marks a crucial generation the first in which American born Asians formed a critical mass and began to make their presence felt in the United States Though they were distinguished from previous generations by their American citizenship it was only through these seemingly mundane American activities that they were able to overcome two dimensional stereotypes of themselves as kimono clad Orientals Lim traces the diverse ways in which these young women sought claim to cultural citizenship exploring such topics as the nation s first Asian American sorority Chi Alpha Delta the cultural work of Chinese American actress Anna May Wong Asian American youth culture and beauty pageants and the achievement of fame of three foreign born Asian women in the late 1950s By wearing poodle skirts going to the beach and producing magazines she argues they asserted not just their American ness but their humanity a feeling of belonging

Brown Boys and Rice Queens Eng-Beng Lim, 2023-11-21 Honorable Mention for the 2015 Cultural Studies Best Book presented by the Association of Asian American Studies Winner of the 2013 CLAGS Fellowship Award for Best First Book Project in LGBT Studies A transnational study of Asian performance shaped by the homoerotics of orientalism Brown Boys and Rice Queens focuses on the relationship between the white man and the native boy Eng Beng Lim unpacks this as the central trope for understanding colonial and cultural encounters in 20th and 21st century Asia and its diaspora Using the native boy as a critical guide Lim formulates alternative readings of a traditional Balinese ritual postcolonial Anglophone theatre in Singapore and performance art in Asian America Tracing the transnational formation of the native boy as racial fetish object across the last century Lim follows this figure as he is passed from the hands of the colonial empire to the postcolonial nation state to neoliberal globalization Read through such figurations the traffic in native boys among white men serves as an allegory of an infantilized and emasculated Asia subordinate before colonial whiteness and modernity Pushing further Lim addresses the critical paradox of this entrenched relationship that resides even within queer theory itself by formulating critical interventions around Asian performance

Valdivia,1995-09-27 This groundbreaking collection explores the intersecting variables of groups marginalized by the media Contributors examine gender race class sexual orientation geography and ethnicity in relation to feminist multicultural issues Highly recommended for students of feminism multiculturalism cultural studies communication theory and media analysis Choice Most of the world s women experience multiple forms of oppression yet few communication scholars have prioritized this profound reality Professor Valdivia s collection examining feminism multiculturalism and the media is a welcome text for courses on women minorities and communication plus an excellent resource for many other courses concerned with issues of diversity H Leslie Steeves University of Oregon Many contributors illustrate contradictions in multicultural and feminist media perspectives These embrace more than feminist analysis They illustrate how gender race class and ethnicity affect media coverage and reception providing theoretical approaches to analyzing media coverage The Bookwatch The multiplicity of voices in this volume illustrates the contradictions inherent in multicultural and feminist perspectives on the media Feminism Multiculturalism and the Media breaks new ground by exploring intersecting variables of oppression from the personal to the political The volume begins with feminist analyses but uncovers marginalized others in every area These compelling case studies illustrate how issues of gender race class sexual orientation global origin and ethnicity affect the coverage portrayal media production and reception of every human being The chapters present theoretical perspectives provide examples of methodologies focus on topics of current interest and global relevance and represent a variety of media An essential addition for any individual or classroom interested in critical perspectives on media especially for courses on women in the media and minorities and the media

Women in the Western Matheson Sue Matheson,2020-07-31 In Westerns women transmit complicated cultural coding about the nature of westward expansionism heroism family life manliness and American femininity As the genre changes and matures depictions of women have transitioned from traditional to more modern roles Frontier Feminine charts these significant shifts in the Western s transmission of gender values and expectations and aims to expand the critical arena in which Western film is situated by acknowledging the importance of women in this genre The Asian Mystique Sheridan Prasso, 2009-04-29 Few Westerners escape the images expectations and misperceptions that lead us to see Asia as exotic sensual decadent dangerous and mysterious Despite and because of centuries of East West interaction the stereotypes of Western literature stage and screen remain pervasive icons the tea pouring submissive sexually available geisha girl the steely cold dragon lady dominatrix as well as the portrayal of the Asian male as effeminate and asexual These Oriental illusions color our relations and relationships in ways even well respected professional Asia hands and scholars don't necessarily see The Asian Mystique lays out a provocative challenge to see Asia and Asians as they really are with unclouded deerotized eyes It traces the origins of Western stereotypes in history and in Hollywood examines the phenomenon of yellow fever then goes on a reality tour of Asia's go go bars middle class homes college campuses business districts and corridors of power providing intimate profiles of women's lives and vivid portraits of the human side of an Asia we usually mythologize too well to really understand It strips away our misconceptions and stereotypes revealing instead the fully dimensional human beings beyond our usual perceptions The Asian Mystique is required reading for anyone with interest in or interaction with Asia or Asian origin people as well as any serious student or practitioner of East West relations

China-Swiss Relations during the Cold War, 1949-1989 Cyril Cordoba, 2022-07-01 During the Cold War Switzerland functioned as a hub for Chinese propaganda networks Despite its fierce anti communism the Swiss Confederation was one of the first capitalist countries to recognise the People's Republic of China PRC As a neutral country and as the home base for many international organisations Switzerland represented a strategic centre for the spread of Maoism throughout the world Focusing on cultural diplomacy and questioning the notion of soft power this book explores how the PRC developed its influence and its prestige abroad through its Embassy in Bern the most important in Western Europe The book also discusses how China's approach in Switzerland bypassing traditional diplomatic structures and relying on contacts with individual people foreign friends was then used and continues to be used in many other countries including the United States France and Japan

The Columbia Guide to Asian American History Gary Y. Okihiro, 2005-03-30 Offering a rich and insightful road map of Asian American history as it has evolved over more than 200 years this book marks the first systematic attempt to take stock of this field of study It examines comments and questions the changing assumptions and contexts underlying the experiences and contributions of an incredibly diverse population of Americans Arriving and settling in this nation as early as the 1790s with American born generations stretching back more than a century Asian Americans have become an integral part of the American experience this cleverly organized book marks the trajectory of that journey offering researchers invaluable information and interpretation Part 1 offers a synoptic narrative history a chronology and a set of periodizations that reflect different ways of constructing the Asian American past Part 2 presents lucid discussions of historical debates such as interpreting the anti Chinese movement of the late 1800s and the underlying causes of Japanese American internment during World War II and such emerging themes as transnationalism and women and gender issues Part 3 contains a historiographical essay and a wide ranging compilation of book film and electronic resources for further study of core themes and groups including Chinese Japanese Filipino Hmong Indian Korean Vietnamese and others
