

THEOCRATIC MINISTRY SCHOOL REVIEW (WEEK STARTING APRIL 29)

1. Lessons for Us:

10:6-9, God's purpose is that marriage mates stick together. Therefore, rather than hastily seeking a divorce, husbands and wives should strive to apply Bible principles to overcome any difficulties that may arise in marriage.—Matt. 19:4-6.

2. PS – THIS ANSWER IS NOT FROM OKM SUGGESTION, BUT IT'S ALSO A GOOD ANSWER. :)

Loving Jehovah With Our Whole Soul

In the Scriptures the word "soul" basically refers to our entire person as well as to the life we possess. So loving Jehovah with our whole soul means that we use our life to praise him and to prove our love for him. Of course, we may have other interests in life, such as learning a job, running a business, or raising a family. But at the same time, we prove our whole-souled love for Jehovah by doing things his way and by keeping other things in their proper place in our life, thus "seeking first the kingdom and his righteousness." (Matthew 6:33) Whole-souled worship also means being zealous. We show Jehovah that we love him by zealously preaching the Kingdom message, giving upbuilding comments at the meetings, or helping our Christian brothers and sisters. In everything, we keep "doing the will of God whole-souled."—Ephesians 6:6. Jesus demonstrated whole-souled love for God by disowning himself. He put God's will first and his personal needs second. Jesus invited us to follow his example. He said: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake and continually follow me." (Matthew 16:24, 25) Disowning ourselves means making a dedication. It means that we love God so much that we hand ownership of ourselves over to him, as when an Israelite in Bible times loved his master so much that he obligated himself to him permanently as a slave. (Deuteronomy 15:16, 17) Dedicating our life to Jehovah provides convincing evidence that we love him.

3. ²As Christians, we are not surprised by the distresses of life. We understand that "pangs of distress" are part of the foretold sign of Jesus' presence. (Mark 13:8; Matt. 24:3) The original-language word rendered "pangs of distress" refers to the intense pain experienced during childbirth. How accurately that describes the intensity of people's suffering in these "critical," or "fierce," times that are so "hard to deal with"—2 Tim. 3:1; Kingdom Interlinear.
4. Yes, some Bible writers did refer to or consult existing but uninspired histories or documents. Esther 10:2 refers to "the Book of the affairs of the times of the kings of Media and Persia." Similarly, to prepare his Gospel account, Luke "traced all things from the start with accuracy." He probably meant that he consulted written sources available to him as he compiled the list of Jesus' genealogy that we can read in his Gospel. (Luke 1:3; 3:23-38) While the records Luke consulted were not inspired, his resulting Gospel certainly was. And that Gospel remains valuable for us.
5. ¹² There is something else to remember about the Devil's temptations. Satan approached Jesus after He had been fasting for 40 days in the wilderness. No doubt the Devil thought that this was a particularly "convenient time" to test Jesus' integrity. (Luke 4:13) Satan looks for convenient times to test our integrity too. It is vital, therefore, that we keep ourselves spiritually strong. Satan often attacks when he perceives that his target is at its weakest point. So whenever we feel tired or discouraged, we should be more determined than ever to petition Jehovah for his protective help and holy spirit.—2 Cor. 12:8-10.
