Johannes Botterweck, Helmer Ringgren, Heinz-Josef Fabry, 1974 This multivolume work is still proving to be as fundamental to Old Testament studies as its companion set the Kittel Friedrich Theological Dictionary of the New Testament has been to New Testament studies Beginning with father and continuing through the alphabet the TDOT volumes present in depth discussions of the key Hebrew and Aramaic words in the Old Testament Leading scholars of various religious traditions including Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anglican Greek Orthodox and Jewish and from many parts of the world Denmark France Germany Great Britain Greece Israel Italy the Netherlands Norway Sweden Switzerland and the United States have been carefully selected for each article by editors Botterweck Ringgren and Fabry and their consultants George W Anderson Henri Cazelles David Noel Freedman Shemaryahu Talmon and Gerhard Wallis The intention of the writers is to concentrate on meaning starting from the more general everyday senses and building to an understanding of theologically significant concepts To avoid artificially restricting the focus of the articles TDOT considers under each keyword the larger groups of words that are related linguistically or semantically The lexical work includes detailed surveys of a word s occurrences not only in biblical material but also in other ancient Near Eastern writings Sumerian Akkadian Egyptian Ethiopic Ugaritic and Northwest Semitic sources are surveyed among others as well as the Qumran texts and the Septuagint and in cultures where no cognate word exists the authors often consider cognate ideas TDOT s emphasis though is on Hebrew terminology and on biblical usage The contributors employ philology as well as form critical and traditio historical methods with the aim of understanding the religious statements in the Old Testament Extensive bibliographical information adds to the value of this reference work This English edition attempts to serve the needs of Old Testament students without the linguistic background of more advanced scholars it does so however without sacrificing the needs of the latter Ancient scripts Hebrew Greek etc are regularly transliterated in a readable way and meanings of foreign words are given in many cases where the meanings might be obvious to advanced scholars Where the Hebrew text versification differs from that of English Bibles the English verse appears in parentheses Such features will help all earnest students of the Bible to avail themselves of the manifold theological insights contained in this monumental work The Assurance of Things Hoped for Avery Dulles,1996-09 Faith since the earliest Christian theologians has been regarded as the fundamental Christian virtue the prerequisite for hope charity and good works In this book Avery Dulles examines the biblical foundations and history of theological reflection on faith from the Greek and Latin fathers to such modern giants as Tillich Rahner and Lonergan Further Dulles presents his own systematic synthesis reflecting on such topics as the nature and object of faith the certitude of faith the birth growth and loss of faith and faith and salvation The result is a refreshingly relevant theology of faith for our day

A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience Joel A. A. Ajayi,2010 Ancient cultures such as that of the Hebrews commonly associated wisdom with advanced years In A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience the author investigates the validity of this correlation through an eclectic approach including linguistic semantic tradition historical and socio anthropological methods to pertinent biblical and extra biblical texts There are significant variations in the estimation of gerassapience or old age wisdom in each period of ancient Israel s life that is in pre monarchical monarchical and post monarchical Israel Throughout this study appropriate cross cultural parallels are drawn from the cultures of ancient Israel s neighbors and of modern societies such as the West African Yoruba tribe The overall results are bi dimensional On the one hand there are semantic elements of gerassapience such as the elusiveness of wisdom and the mild fluidity of old age Both terms have strong contextual affinity with minimal exceptions Thus the attribution of wisdom to old age is evident but not absolute in the Hebrew Bible Old Testament On the other hand gerassapience is depicted as primarily didactic through direct and indirect instructions and counsels of the elderly fostering the saging fear of Yahweh legacies On the whole socio anthropocentric tendencies of gerassapience that is of making old age a repertoire of wisdom are checked by theological warrants of theosapience Yahwistic wisdom Therefore in the Hebrew Bible the fear of Yahweh is also the beginning of growing old and wise Christian Ministry in the Divine Milieu Maldari, SJ, Donald, C.,2019-03-27 Fr Maldari offers a vision of Christian ministry as a community in which each member actively participates in fostering creation s evolution toward fulfillment While ministry is ultimately cooperating with God in furthering the process of creation to its fulfillment in salvation it also humbly recognizes human limitation and dependence upon the Holy Spirit Putting God on Trial Robert Sutherland,2004 Many scholars find the legal metaphor of an Oath of Innocence inappropriate though for different reasons Some liberal scholars opt for an aesthetic not a moral resolution of the question of evil in the world They find a sublime beauty in God's review of the animal and physical worlds Behemoth and Leviathan But that is all they find They find no suggestions of moral purpose in God's creation and control of evil Indeed they feel none could be forthcoming God is beyond good and evil so no moral resolution is possible Since no moral resolution is possible a legal metaphor such as a lawsuit dramatizing the moral question is inappropriate They interpret Job to understand that position And they interpret him to retract the lawsuit in its entirety This author feels such liberal scholars miss a moral resolution for five reasons a First they fail to give adequate weight to Satan's first speech in heaven setting out the moral solution b Second they misinterpret Job's struggle with God to be a request for a restoration of his former position rather than a request to know the reason behind evil in the world c Third they fail to appreciate the moral restrictions under which God has to operate God cannot reveal any moral answers directly without defeating his very purpose in the creation and control of evil As a result they miss the suggestions of moral purpose in God's two speeches and the inferences God would have Job draw d Fourth they fail to fully appreciate the legal dynamics of the enforcement mechanism of Job's Oath of Innocence In particular they fail to appreciate the distinction between causal responsibility and moral blameworthiness Thus they do not understand God's comments concerning vindication and condemnation in his first speech to Job And they do not understand Job's hesitation to proceed beyond his own vindication to a condemnation of God in Job's first speech to God Ultimately they fail to see Job's adjournment and continuation of his Oath of Innocence implied by the allusion to the story of Abraham and Sodom and Gomorrah in Job's final speech e Finally they fail to give full expression to God's ultimate judgement on Job Job and only Job spoke rightly about God In the face of such a judgement there is no room to deny the ultimate propriety of the moral and legal question as a way of framing man's encounter with God Some conservative scholars opt for a moral resolution of the question of evil in the world but their resolution is equally unsatisfying They interpret Job's so called excessive words and his Oath of Innocence to be sins of presumption Thus they would have Job retract his lawsuit in its entirety and repent morally for either his so called excessive words his raising of the lawsuit or both This author feels such conservative scholars miss a satisfactory moral resolution for three reasons a First they fail to understand the depth of Satan's challenge to God It is not merely that Job will curse God It is that God is wrong in his judgement on Job's goodness God missed sin in Job's life Such scholars think their moral resolution is possible because although Job sins Job does not actually curse God Their resolution actually makes Satan right in his challenge of God so that God should step down from his throne and destroy mankind b Second they fail to give proper weight to Job's blamelessness and integrity The raising of the Oath of Innocence is an expression of that blamelessness and integrity It is what God expects of Job though he cannot tell him that directly c Finally they fail to give full expression of God's ultimate judgement on Job Job and only Job spoke rightly about God In the face of such a judgement there is no room to attribute sin or wrongdoing to Job for either his so called excessive words or for his Oath of Innocence My personal interpretation charts a new middle course between these two fold horrors Theological

The Geography of Hell in the Teaching of Jesus Kim Papaioannou, 2013-09-19 The topic of hell has held a strange fascination for believers through the centuries becoming the subject of paintings sermons books articles and much more For many it has been a source of terror for most a wellspring of questions Is there such a thing as hell How long will it last Who will go there Is hell fair In this study Kim Papaioannou tackles the topic at its most foundational level in the words and teaching of Jesus Rather than attempt overarching and all encompassing answers he begins instead with a detailed study of the relevant texts and builds from there upwards The result is a picture that is not only coherent and satisfying but more importantly solidly based on biblical exegesis of the most refined nature Papaioannou concludes by putting hell into a more palatable and biblically sound perspective Though unreservedly scholarly the study is written in such a way that lay readers can understand and enjoy it
