Theology As Discipleship Keith Johnson:

Theology as Discipleship Keith L. Johnson, 2016 For many people the word theology evokes something dry academic irrelevant and disconnected from the everyday concerns of life We surely would not say that about God so why is our talk about God any different In this engaging and accessible introduction Keith Johnson takes a fresh look at theology He presents the discipline of theology as one of the ways we participate in the life of the triune God Without suggesting it should be removed from the academy Johnson argues that theology has to be integrally connected to the traditions and practices of the church If academic theology is to be genuinely theological then it has to be carried out in obedience to Jesus Christ and in service to the church Unlike other introductions Theology as Discipleship avoids the usual overview of doctrines according to the creed which traditionally move from the Trinity to eschatology Instead Johnson explains the content of theology by describing the Christian life being in Christ hearing God's Word sharing the mind of Christ Theology not only leads to discipleship but is itself a way of following after Christ in faith

Hearers and Doers Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2019-05-15 The foundation of discipleship is sound scriptural doctrine The value of sound doctrine is often misunderstood by the modern church While it can be dry and dull when it flows from the story of Scripture it can be full of life and love This kind of doctrine steeped in Scripture is critical for disciple making And it s often overlooked by modern pastors In Hearers and Doers Kevin Vanhoozer makes the case that pastors as pastor theologians ought to interpret Scripture theologically to articulate doctrine and help cultivate disciples scriptural doctrine is vital to the life of the church and local pastor theologians should be the ones delivering it to their communities With arresting prose and striking metaphors Vanhoozer addresses the most pressing problems in the modern church with one answer teach sound scriptural doctrine to make disciples

Rooted Leadership John Johnson, 2022-06-14 Behind many of the challenges facing us today is a failure of leadership This is not a new problem Yearning for wise guidance and effective authority is a perennial human longing We need leaders who are credible competent and committed But many leaders seem to be caught up even consumed with their own power and agendas Some see the leadership crisis as an intellectual problem believing we lack a clear theory of leadership Others view the breakdown of leadership as a result of increasing deficiency in moral character Most leadership books today revolve around the concepts of motivation inspiration empowerment and teamwork Helpful as these themes might be they miss something more fundamental Leadership needs a theological foundation that will be useful for shaping the undergirding principles and evaluating current leadership theories and practices We need to view leadership from the vantage point of God In Rooted Leadership John E Johnson explores how Christian theology provides an overarching leadership framework and applies that theory to leadership practices Spiritual reflection guided by scripture points us to the very center of leadership God and the purpose of leadership that we might display his glory All the best forms of leading take their cues from who God is his purposes and his ways of working with people that he has progressively revealed Building on three decades of research study and experience as a global leader Johnson surveys the landscape of contemporary leadership theory unpacks the assumptions and beliefs that underly current trends and responds by offering a robust approach to leadership founded on the character work and words of God Christian Ethics Steve
