Theology Of The Pain Of God The First Original Theology From Japan:

The Suffering and Victorious Christ Richard J. Mouw, Douglas A. Sweeney, 2013-10-15 American theologians tend to focus on the great hope Christians have through Christ's resurrection emphasizing Christ's victory while minimizing or ignoring his suffering Through their engagements with Japanese Christians and African American Christians on the topic of Christology Richard Mouw and Douglas Sweeney have come to recognize and underscore that Christ offers hope not only through his resurrection but also through his incarnation The authors articulate a more compassionate and orthodox Christology that answers the experience of the global church offering a corrective to what passes for American Christology today The book includes an afterword by Willie James Jennings of Duke Divinity School Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno, 2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ's followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God's loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc The Suffering of God in the Eternal Decree Nixon de Vera, 2020-06-15 This book seeks to unpack the evolution of Barth's understanding of God's suffering in Jesus Christ in the light of election The interconnectedness of election crucifixion and impassibility is explored in order to ask whether the suffering of Christ is also a statement about the Trinity God, Suffering, and Disability Mary Schaefer Fast, 2019-05-22 God Suffering and Disability A Trinitarian Theodicy of the Cross utilizes both Christological and pneumatological perspectives of Luther's theology of the cross to address the complexities of suffering and disability Through the lens of the cross the God who suffers enables humans to call a thing what it is by recognizing the suffering that often accompanies disability Rather than asking why the Triune God allows people to suffer this theodicy of disability focuses on where the Father Son and Spirit are in that very human experience As a new theodic construct a Trinitarian theodicy of the cross responds to both the theological concerns of the church and the theoretical apprehensions of society It encourages Christians to live as theologians of the cross empowers the faith community by informing both its theology and praxis and provides a theoretical response to secular society that will enrich the field of disability studies Christianity Encounters Japan Joseph John Spae, 1968 Suffering and Persecution Myrto Theocharous, 2024-09-17 God's love in Jesus Christ for the salvation and recreation of all things is still the hope of the world This Christian affirmation is the reality that holds all things and holds all things together Yet in today's world it is easy to understand why the church is in pain and declining in its Christian and moral influence Rethinking Church in the 21st Century is the culmination of three years of exploration into the condition of the church around the world today Bringing together a diverse community of Christian voices these essays offer reflections and admonitions to ignite the hearts of pastors and leaders during the dynamic vulnerable and hopeful times we face In this first volume scholars and church leaders from across the globe respond to writings on suffering and persecution The authors examine the universal themes of suffering and address topics such as violence natural disasters and persecution through contextually rooted lenses The resulting essays are an authentic richly diverse collection that offers fresh perspectives for the church to reflect on together Embodied Cross Arata Miyamoto, 2010-07-01 The cross carries the polar memories of history One memory is the terrible violence imposed on Jesus and the other is the memory of faith in the midst of the deepest abyss in human history A theology of the cross contextualizes the dangerous combination of these memories in the present reality of life and death A theology of the cross is thoroughly preoccupied with the agency of God but not in a way that deals with the systematic apologetics of the knowledge of God It deals with the knowledge of God before it becomes knowledge It is the matter of the living and dying of our life This book explores theologians of the cross in a global flow and proposes an intercontextual perspective of theology The Japan Christian Quarterly, 1980 Kosuke Koyama Merrill Morse, 1991 The highly pluralistic intercultural nature of the modern world challenges Christianity to reexamine its relationship to other religions and to reconsider the nature of theology itself No longer can theology be grounded primarily in the methods and terminology of Western culture Kosuke Koyama illustrates an Asian approach to theological methodology He also models a uniquely Christocentric yet open ended approach to Christian encounters with the world's cultures and religions
