Gender in Flux Harriet Evans, Julia C. Strauss, 2011-06-16 Based on recent research and insights from political activism the volume explores changing manifestations and articulations of gender in China

Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History Susan L. Mann, 2011-09-19 Gender and sexuality have been neglected topics in the history of Chinese civilization despite the fact that there is a massive amount of historical evidence on the subject China's late imperial government was arguably more concerned about gender and sexuality among its subjects than any other pre modern state How did these and other late imperial legacies shape twentieth century notions of gender and sexuality in modern China Susan Mann answers this by focusing on state policy ideas about the physical body and notions of sexuality and difference in China's recent history from medicine to the theater to the gay bars from law to art and sports More broadly the book shows how changes in attitudes toward sex and gender in China during the twentieth century have cast a new light on the process of becoming modern while simultaneously challenging the universalizing assumptions of Western modernity Border Masculinities Amit Thakkar, Brian Baker, Chris Harris, 2024-10-08 This volume collates and examines literary and screened representations of what the editors term border masculinities It seeks to understand masculine subjectivities through fiction and screen within a complex global arena of relationships and fluid movements across multiple boundaries within that arena It also concerns paradigmatic borders related to class gender and ethnicities as well as other theoretical parameters which cut across porous spatial boundaries This collection contains a range of theoretically informed responses to varying cultural representations of such masculinities in Europe the Americas the Caribbean Australasia and Asia Thematic and conceptual connections between them are discussed in the introductory chapter and such links are also made between chapters Gender in Chinese Music Rachel A. Harris, Rowan Pease, Shzr Ee Tan, 2013 Gender in Chinese Music draws together contributions from ethnomusicologists anthropologists and literary scholars to explore how music is implicated in changing notions of masculinity femininity and genders in between in Chinese culture Sport and American Society Mark Dyreson, J. A. Mangan, 2013-09-13 A special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport this collection of provocative essays explores the many faces of sport in America Drawing upon insights from anthropology history philosophy and sociology and with reference throughout to politics and economics the contributors outline the story of how American sport has contributed to a climate of insularity exceptionalism and imperialism from a symbolic rejection of British rule and British sports to the current status of all American sports such as baseball and basketball in the face of globalization Law Society Journal, 2003 Experiences of Transnational Chinese Migrants in the Asia-Pacific David Fu-Keung Ip, Raymond Hibbins, Wing Hong Chui, 2006 This title provides a much needed theoretical account of socio cultural and identity issues surrounding middle class Chinese migration in the changing context of migration policies and issues in Australia and other places It also offers insights to students studying the current changing face of Chinese migration and provides relevant data to policy makers managers and practitioners in the field of immigration and multicultural affairs This is a cutting edge volume that advances theories methodologies and policy issues relating to contemporary middle class Chinese migrants It reports and discusses multidisciplinary research undertaken in Australia Canada and New Zealand The book will not only serve as an introductory textbook for students of migration studies social sciences and China studies but also as a reference source for those who are interested in learning about recent Chinese migration in Asia and the Pacific Korean Masculinities and Transcultural Consumption Sun Jung, 2011 South Korean masculinities have enjoyed dramatic influence in pan Asian popular culture which travels freely due to its non nationalistic appeal This book investigates transcultural consumption of three iconic figures the middle aged Japanese female fandom of actor Bae Yong Joon the Western online cult fandom of the horror film Oldboy and the Singaporean fandom of the popstar Rain Gendered Inequalities in Asia Helle Rydstrom,2010 Global processes with flows in money commodities and people have made it increasingly varied and blurred what it means to be a female or male in Asia today Socio economic and cultural patterns in Asia intersect with one another and in doing so they translate into power relations that create both possibilities and constraints for women and men By focusing on unequal access to political and religious power occupation and health facilities as well as different options when it comes to family life and sexuality the recognition of women and men are explored in this volume as manifestations of ideas about femininity and masculinity Readers will find insightful and enriching contributions that consider how gender relations in Asia and indeed the very meaning of gender itself are affected by neo liberalism globalization and economic growth security in all of its meanings multiculturalism race and class family life power and intergenerational support religious discourses and activism and by male norms in politics This title highlights the complex ways in which the positions of women and men are configured recognized and contested in a rapidly transforming region It offers a fresh multidisciplinary perspective on gender inequalities
