the middle of the nineteenth century How might the discipline of music theory be rejuvenated by aid from Africa What are the strengths and limitations of ethnotheory as a methodology Who is who in theorizations of African rhythm and how might we explain the shape of the existing archive This book thus deals with analytical and interpretive issues the politics of scholarship and salient features of African music Laced with provocative viewpoints on each page On African Music should appeal not only to readers curious about the structural underpinnings of African music but also to those who wish to reflect critically and philosophically on how we study and write about the music of the continent how we might approach its global status with a firm understanding from the inside and what our priorities might be in promoting an empowering cosmopolitan discourse

Tuning the Kingdom Damascus Kafumbe, 2018 Tuning the Kingdom draws on oral and written accounts archival research and musical analysis to examine how the Kawuugulu Clan Royal Musical Ensemble of the Kingdom of Buganda arguably the kingdom's oldest and longest surviving performance ensemble has historically managed structured modeled and legitimized power relations among the Baganda people of south central Uganda Damascus Kafumbe argues that the ensemble sustains a complex sociopolitical hierarchy interweaving and maintaining a delicate balance between kin and clan ties and royal prerogatives through musical performance and storytelling that integrates human and nonhuman stories He describes this phenomenon as tuning the kingdom and he compares it to the process of tensioning or stretching Kiganda drums which are always moving in and out of tune Even as Kawuugulu continues to adapt to the rapidly changing world around it Tuning the Kingdom documents how Kawuugulu has historically articulated and embodied principles of the three inextricably related domains that serve as the backbone of Kiganda politics kinship clanship and kingship Damascus Kafumbe is Assistant Professor of Music at Middlebury College
