Doing Animal Studies with Androids, Aliens, and Ghosts David P. Rando, 2023-04-06 Exploring what can be learnt when literary critics in the field of animal studies temporarily direct attention away from representations of nonhuman animals in literature and towards liminal figures like androids aliens and ghosts this book examines the boundaries of humanness Simultaneously it encourages the reader both to see nonhuman animals afresh and to reimagine the terms of our relationships with them Examining imaginative texts by writers such as Octavia Butler Philip K Dick Kazuo Ishiguro Jeanette Winterson and J M Coetzee this book looks at depictions of androids that redefine traditional humanist qualities such as hope and uniqueness It examines alien visions that unmask the racist and heteronormative roots of speciesism And it unpacks examples of ghosts and spirits who offer posthumous visions of having been human that decenter anthropocentrism In doing so it leaves open the potential for better relationships and futures with nonhuman animals Exploring Imaginary Worlds Mark Wolf, 2020-10-08 From The Brothers Karamazov to Star Trek to Twin Peaks this collection explores a variety of different imaginary worlds both historic and contemporary Featuring contributions from an interdisciplinary and international group of scholars each essay looks at a particular imaginary world in depth and world building issues associated with that world Together the essays explore the relationship between the worlds and the media in which they appear as they examine imaginary worlds in literature television film computer games and theatre with many existing across multiple media simultaneously The book argues that the media incarnation of a world affects world structure and poses unique obstacles to the act of world building The worlds discussed include Nazar Barsetshire Skotopogonievsk the Vorkosigan Universe Grover s Corners Gormenghast Collinsport Daventry Dune the Death Gate Cycle universe Twin Peaks and the Star Trek galaxy A follow up to Mark J P Wolf s field defining book Building Imaginary Worlds this collection will be of critical interest to students and scholars of popular culture subcreation studies transmedia studies literature and beyond

New Digital Worlds Roopika Risam,2018-11-15 The emergence of digital humanities has been heralded for its commitment to openness access and the democratizing of knowledge but it raises a number of questions about omissions with respect to race gender sexuality disability and nation Postcolonial digital humanities is one approach to uncovering and remedying inequalities in digital knowledge production which is implicated in an information age politics of knowledge New Digital Worlds traces the formation of postcolonial studies and digital humanities as fields identifying how they can intervene in knowledge production in the digital age Roopika Risam examines the role of colonial violence in the development of digital archives and the possibilities of postcolonial digital archives for resisting this violence Offering a reading of the colonialist dimensions of global organizations for digital humanities research she explores efforts to decenter these institutions by emphasizing the local practices that subtend global formations and pedagogical approaches that support this decentering Last Risam attends to human futures in new digital worlds evaluating both how algorithms and natural language processing software used in digital humanities projects produce universalist notions of the human and also how to resist this phenomenon

Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines Mih?e?, Lorena Clara, Andreescu, Raluca, Dimitriu, Anda, 2021-01-15 Stories are everywhere around us from the ads on TV or music video clips to the more sophisticated stories told by books or movies Everything comes wrapped in a story and the means employed to weave the narrative thread are just as important as the story itself In this context there is a need to understand the role storytelling plays in contemporary society which has changed drastically in recent decades Modern global society is no longer exclusively dominated by the time tested narrative media such as literature or films because new media such as videogames or social platforms have changed the way we understand create and replicate stories The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements social media and knowledge sharing platforms among others It is targeted towards professionals researchers and students working or studying in the fields of narratology literature media studies marketing and communication anthropology religion or film studies Moreover for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful
