Long the Mile Ally Blue, 2013-11-25 When Judah went to prison for insider trading he lost everything he thought was important his business his money his power But when he gets out homelessness strips him of the one thing he has left his self respect When another homeless man saves him from a beating he begins to learn to rely on the goodness of those around him For Toby life on the streets has become familiar Comfortable So comfortable he wonders if he's given up on changing his life for the better Then comes Judah Formerly rich newly homeless all his pride and attitude gone along with his material possessions Helping Judah feels good Their unexpected connection physical and beyond feels even better Their shared situation nurtures a growing closeness that blossoms into something deeper But when change comes knocking it will take all their strength to keep fear and insecurity from tearing them apart HR TWENTY PERCENT OF ALL PROCEEDS from this title are donated to the Ali Forney Center in New York whose mission is to protect lesbian gay bisexual transgender questioning LGBTQ youth from the harm of homelessness and to support them in becoming safe and independent as they move from adolescence to adulthood To learn more about this charity or to donate directly please visit aliforneycenter.org Down
