Things Georges Perec, 2009-12-01 Things A Story of the Sixties I is the story of a young couple who want to enjoy life but the only way they know how to do so is through ownership of things Perec's first novel won the Prix Renaudot and became the cult book for a generation In A Man Asleep I a young student embarks upon a disturbing and exhaustive pursuit of indifference following his experience in non existence with relentless logic Things: a Story of the Sixties with a Man Asleep Georges Perec, 2011 A story of a young couple who want to enjoy life but the only way they know how to do so is through ownership of things Things Georges Perec, 1990 Two thematically related novellas by Georges Perec in one volume In each Perec probes our obsession with society's trappings the seductive mass of things that masquerade as stability and meaning In Things A Story of the Sixties Jerome and Sylvie a young upwardly mobile couple lust for the good life caught between the fantasy of the film they would have liked to live and the reality of life's daily mundanities The nameless student in A Man Asleep attempts to purify himself entirely of material desires and ambition He longs to want nothing Just to wait until there is nothing left to wait for Just to wander and to sleep Yearning to exist on neutral ground as a blessed parenthesis he discovers something unexpected With the American publication of Life A User's Manual in 1987 Georges Perec was recognized in the United States as one of this century's most innovative writers Things A Story of the Sixties is accessible sobering and deeply involving Each novel distills Perec's unerring grasp of the human condition and displays his rare comic talent detachment and compassion Things, a Story of the Sixties [and] a Man Asleep Georges Perec, 1990 Things Georges Perec, 2002-07-01 Things A Story of the Sixties is the story of a young couple who want to enjoy life but the only way they know how to do so is through ownership of things Perec's first novel won the Prix Renaudot and became the cult book for a generation In A Man Asleep a young student embarks upon a disturbing and exhaustive pursuit of indifference following his experience in non existence with relentless logic Dancing with Georges Perec Leslie Satin, 2024-06-14 This book explores the relationship of the life and work of the remarkable Parisian Jewish writer Georges Perec 1936-1983 to dance Dancing addresses art making parallels and their personal and sociocultural contexts including Perec's childhood loss of his parents in the Holocaust and its repercussions in the significance of the body everydayness space and attention permeating his work This book emerging from the author Leslie Satin's perspective as a dancer and scholar links Perec's concerns with those of dance and demonstrates that Perec's work has implications for dance and how we think about it Moreover it is framed as a performative autobiographical enactment of the author's relationship to Perec periodically linking their written danced and imagined lives This exploration will be of great interest to dancers dance scholars and dance students interested in contemporary experimental dance and contemporary dance Bion in Film Theory and Analysis Carla Ambrósio Garcia, 2016-12-01 In Bion in Film Theory and Analysis The Retreat in Film Carla Ambrósio Garcia introduces the rich potential of the thinking of British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion for film theory By so doing she rethinks the space of the cinema as a space of retreat and brings new insights into the representation of retreat in film Presented in two parts the book seeks to deepen our understanding of the film experience and psychical growth Part I places Bion's view on the importance of the epistemophilic instinct at the heart of a critique of the pleasure centred theories of the cinematic apparatus of Jean Louis Baudry Christian Metz and Gaylyn Studlar proposing an idea of cinema as thoughts in search of a thinker Garcia then moves from Bion's epistemological period to his later work which draws on mysticism in order to posit an emotional experience in the cinema through which the subject can be or become real or at one with O Part II examines representations of retreat in four European films directed by Ingmar Bergman Pier Paolo Pasolini Georges Perec and Bernard Queysanne and Manoel de Oliveira showing them to articulate a gesture of retreat as an emotionally turbulent transitional stage in the development of the psyche what Bion conceptualizes as caesura Through its investigation of the retreat in cinema the book challenges common understandings of retreat as a regressive movement by presenting it as a gesture and space that can also be future oriented Bion in Film Theory and Analysis will be of significant interest to academics and students of psychoanalysis psychotherapy and film and media studies as well as psychoanalysts and psychotherapists
