Things I Cant Explain A Clarissa Novel:

Returning the Gift Rebecca Colesworthy, 2018-10-15 From debates about reparations to the rise of the welfare state the decades following World War I saw a widespread turn across disciplines to questions about the nature and role of gifts What is a gift What do gifts mean and do Which individuals and institutions have the authority to give Marshalling wide ranging interdisciplinary research Returning the Gift argues that these questions centrally shaped literary modernism The book begins by revisiting the locus classicus of twentieth century gift theory the French sociologist Marcel Mauss s 1925 essay The Gift The Form and Reason for Exchange in Archaic Societies His title notwithstanding the gift Mauss envisions is not primitive or pre capitalist but rather a distinctively modern phenomenon Subsequent chapters offer sustained nuanced readings of novels and nonfiction by Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Gertrude Stein and H D from the 1920s to 1940s underscoring the ways their writing is illuminated by contemporaneous developments in the social sciences economics and politics while also making a case for their unique contributions to broader debates about gifts Not only do these writers insist that literature is a special kind of gift but they also pose challenges to the gift s feminization in the work of both their Victorian forebears and contemporary male theorists Each of these writers uses tropes and narratives of giving of hospitality sympathy reciprocity charity genius and kinship to imagine more egalitarian social possibilities under the conditions of the capitalist present The language of the gift is not as we might expect a mark of hostility to the market so much as a means of giving form to the society in market society of representing everyday experiences of exchange that the myth of the free market works even now to render unthinkable

Lams,2001 Challenging the view that Samuel Richardson s eighteenth century epistolary novel Clarissa is a shapeless sequence of letters this book argues that the novel has an action structure consisting of five act like movements that emerge from the round robin transfer of narrative dominance from the interiorizing drama enacted on the epistolary stage first by Clarissa s then by Lovelace s self reflections on just past events to Belford s more conventionally novelistic other reflective narrative that ends the history This book contrasts Clarissa s use of soliloquy to achieve self understanding with Lovelace s employment of dramatic monologue to enable self deception Finally Miss Howe s and Belford s performances in epistolary friendship are evaluated The Bookman ,1890 Youth's Companion Nathaniel Willis,Daniel Sharp Ford,1893 Includes songs for solo voice with piano accompaniment Samuel Beckett--humanistic Perspectives Ohio State University.
