Political

Ecology Paul Robbins, 2019-10-08 An accessible focused exploration of the field of political ecology The third edition of Political Ecology spans this sprawling field using grounded examples and careful readings of current literature While the study of political ecology is sometimes difficult to fathom owing to its breadth and diversity this resource simplifies the discussion by reducing the field down into a few core questions and arguments These points clearly demonstrate how critical theory can make pragmatic contributions to the fields of conservation development and environmental management The latest edition of this seminal work is also more closely focused with references to recent work from around the world Further Political Ecology raises critical questions about traditional approaches to environmental questions and problems This new edition Includes international work in the field coming out of Europe Latin America and Asia Explains political ecology and its tendency to disrupt the environmental research and practice by both advancing and undermining associated fields of study Contains contributions from a wide range of diverse backgrounds and expertise Offers a resource that is written in highly accessible straightforward language Outlines the frontiers of the field and frames climate change and the end of population growth with the framework of political ecology An excellent resource for undergraduates and academics the third edition of Political Ecology offers an updated edition of the guide to this diverse quickly growing field that is at the heart of how humans shape the world and in turn are shaped by it

Climate Change Justice and Global Resource Commons

Shangrila Joshi, 2021-04-05 This book examines the multiple scales at which the inequities of climate change are borne out Shangrila Joshi engages in a multi scalar analysis of the myriad ways in which various resource commons predominantly atmosphere and forests are implicated in climate governance with a consistent emphasis throughout on the justice implications for disenfranchised communities The book starts with an analysis of North South inequities in responsibility vulnerability and capability as evidenced in global climate treaty negotiations from Rio to Paris It then moves on to examine the ways in which structural inequalities are built into the conceptualization and operationalization of various neoliberal climate solutions such as Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation REDD and the Clean Development Mechanism CDM Drawing on qualitative interviews conducted in Delhi Kathmandu and the Terai region of Nepal participant observation at the Climate Conference in Copenhagen COP 15 and textual analysis of official documents the book articulates a geography of climate justice considering how ideas of injustice pertaining to colonialism race Indigeneity caste gender and global inequality intersect with the politics of scale This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of environmental justice climate justice climate policy political ecology and South Asian studies
