Thomas Chatterton And Neglected Genius 1760 1830:

Thomas Chatterton and Neglected Genius, 1760-1830 Daniel Cook, 2015-12-11 Long before Wordsworth etherealized him as the marvellous Boy The sleepless Soul that perished in its pride Thomas Chatterton was touted as the second Shakespeare by eighteenth century Shakespeareans ranked among the leading British poets by prominent literary critics and likened to the fashionable modern prose stylists Macpherson Sterne and Smollett His pseudo medieval Rowley poems in particular engendered a renewed fascination with ancient English literature With Chatterton as its case study this book offers new insights into the formation and development of literary scholarship in the period from the periodical press to the public lecture from the review to the anthology from textual to biographical criticism Cook demonstrates that while major scholars found Chatterton to be a pertinent subject for multiple literary debates in the eighteenth century by the end of the Romantic period he had become and still remains an unsettling model of hubristic genius The Boy-Man, Masculinity and Immaturity in the Long Nineteenth Century Pete Newbon, 2018-09-04 This book explores the evolution of male writers marked by peculiar traits of childlike immaturity The Boy Man emerged from the nexus of Rousseau's counter Enlightenment cultural primitivism Sensibility's Man of Feeling the Chattertonian poet maudit and the Romantic idealisation of childhood The Romantic era saw the proliferation of boy men who congregated around such metropolitan institutions as The London Magazine These included John Keats Leigh Hunt Charles Lamb Hartley Coleridge Thomas De Quincey and Thomas Hood In the period of the French Revolution terms of childishness were used against such writers as Wordsworth Keats Hunt and Lamb as a tool of political satire Yet boy men writers conversely used their amphibian child adult literary personae to critique the masculinist ideologies of their era However the growing cultural and political conservatism of the nineteenth century and the emergence of a canon of serious literature inculcated the relegation of the boy men from the republic of letters The Collected Writings of Edward Rushton (1756-1814) Edward Rushton, 2014 The first modern edition of the writings of a staunch radical poet from the romantic period based in Liverpool Counterfactual Romanticism Damian Walford Davies, 2019-09-18 Innovatively extending counterfactual thought experiments from history and the social sciences to literary historiography criticism and theory Counterfactual Romanticism reveals the ways in which the shapes of Romanticism are conditioned by that which did not come to pass Exploring various modalities of counterfactual speculation and inquiry across a range of Romantic period authors genres and concerns this collection offers a radical new purchase on literary history on the relationship between history and fiction and on our historicist methods to date and thus on the Romanticisms we think we have inherited Counterfactual Romanticism provides a ground breaking method of re reading literary pasts and our own reading presents in the process literary production texts and reading practices are unfossilised and defamiliarised The Quest for an Appropriate Past in Literature, Art and Architecture, 2018-10-16 This volume explores the various strategies by which appropriate pasts were construed in scholarship literature art and architecture in order to create national regional or local identities in late medieval and early modern Europe Because authority was based on lineage political and territorial claims were underpinned by historical arguments either true or otherwise Literature scholarship art and architecture were pivotal media that were used to give evidence of the impressive old lineage of states regions or families These claims were related not only to classical antiquity but also to other periods that were regarded as antiquities such as the Middle Ages especially the chivalric age The authors of this volume analyse these intriguing early modern constructions of antiquity and investigate the ways in which they were applied in political intellectual and artistic contexts in the period of 1400 1700 Contributors include Barbara Arciszewska Bianca De Divitiis Karl Enenkel Hubertus G nther Thomas Haye Harald Hendrix Stephan Hoppe Marc Laureys Fr d rique Lemerle Coen Maas Anne Fran oise Morel Kristoffer Neville Konrad Ottenheim Yves Pauwels Christian Peters Christoph Pieper David Rijser Bernd Roling Nuno Senos Paul Smith Pieter Vlaardingebroek and Matthew Walker
