American Biography Carl Rollyson,2006-02 This collection of reviews selected from Rollyson s New York Sun column is as much about the romance of biography as it is about the American lives Certain concerns resonate throughout the book the American left's failure to reckon with Communist subversion McCarthyism and Stalinism the problematic nature of authorized biography the history of American biography definitive biographies literary biography the differences between autobiography and biography the importance of interviews in biographies of contemporary figures the differences between history and biography comparative biographies the virtues of short biographies and of biographies for children the tendency of biographers to fictionalize and of novelists to biographize psychology and biography Rollyson's own experience as a biographer and the way biographers treat one another's work Too many biographers he believes evince no interest in the biographical tradition Concerned only with possession of their subjects their proprietorial attitude deforms not only their biographies but also the genre itself If biography is reviewed badly receiving hardly more than a summary of the subject's life with a perfunctory nod to the biographer it is because the biographical tradition has been disregarded or discounted This book in other words has been written on the behalf of biography a genre that still awaits a full vindication Thomas Jefferson, a Biography Nathan Schachner, 1951 Theoretical Discussions of Biography Hans Renders, Binne De Haan, 2014-04-17 Theoretical Discussions of Biography Approaches from History Microhistory and Life Writing offers comprehensive overviews by 14 academic scholars of the actual state of the field of Biography Studies In the volume edited by biography scholars Hans Renders and Binne de Haan specifically the connections between biography and the fields of microhistory journalism and Life Writing illuminate key challenges and problems in studying individual lives Different perspectives are provided on the ways in which biography contributes to scholarship in the humanities in general and academic historiography in particular The contributing authors are academic experts in these fields and include Richard D Brown Carlo Ginzburg Nigel Hamilton Marlene Kadar Giovanni Levi Sabina Loriga Matti Peltonen and James Walter The Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography, 1910 Biography Elroy McKendree Avery, 1918 Biography across the Digitized Globe, 2025-02-27 This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen the Netherlands Throughout his academic career Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection Over this same period however the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre Through its thirteen thought provoking essays this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography, 1893 The International Year Book, 1902 The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography ...
