Thou Shalt Not Lack Understanding Gods Provision For You:

Thou Shalt Not Lack! Jeff Miller, 2013-11 God's Abundant Provision A Promise and A Right Lack is more than just a financial matter Much of the hardships in life are the result of wrong thinking and wrong decisions We must learn the importance of renewing our mind with God's higher thoughts We can only prosper to the degree that our souls thoughts prosper It is imperative that we seek first His kingdom and not money or material possessions Prosperity is never to be our goal in life Many Christians are living far below what Jesus has purchased for them They are struggling to attain what God has freely provided Jesus came that we might have an abundant life Living in lack is not abundant living Lack goes against the very nature of God Financial provision is not only a biblical promise but the right of every born again believer In his book Thou Shalt Not Lack Jeff Miller presents reasons that Christians suffer lack and what they can do to release the blessings of God in their lives The same covenant that provides us with forgiveness and healing also provides us redemption from the curse of lack As you apply the Biblical principles contained in this book you will begin to experience the goodness of God in a fresh way and will move out of the land of lack into God's full supply The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1905
