Three Men in a Float Dan Kieran, Ian Vince, 2009 Travel holiday
With a top speed of 15 miles per hour and fuel efficiency of a penny a mile a decommissioned milk float is the ideal vehicle for an epic journey between England's most easterly and westerly points After planning the entire trip on the back of a beer mat buying a 1958 decommissioned milk float on eBay and charging its tired batteries the team set off from Lowestoft to Lands End On the way they discovered that their float needs to charge for eight hours for every two hours it spends on the road Relying on the milk of human kindness they were at the mercy of strangers every night sometimes even using other people's cookers just to keep the show on the road En route they were treated to tea and rock cakes by the Vice President of the Women's Institutes succeeded in blacking out a Cornish campsite while charging their float now dubbed The Mighty One stayed with the monks at Buckfast Abbey where they undertook a vow of silence and drove 500 miles to Tintagel the birth place of King Arthur only to find it had closed all in the name of discovering lost England You may be thinking why on earth don't these men drive a car like normal people But this is no ordinary journey This is an eccentric odyssey through the English countryside Three Men in a Float is about all things English and the pleasure to be had if you are prepared to slow down get out of your car and go off the beaten track
