The Economic and Strategic Rise of China and India D.

Denoon, 2007-09-03 This book demonstrates the connection between economic and strategic developments in Asia with several interrelated arguments The author asserts that there is no single explanation for the 1997 financial crisis in the Pacific Rim states nor for the slow recovery afterwards The author also points out that China is not the only major power rising in Asia India is close behind and warns that while many observers are proceeding as if current U S treaties will continue indefinitely Asia is already preparing for changing patrons

Debates on Stalinism Mark Edele, 2020-06-11

Debates on Stalinism introduces major debates about Stalinism during and after the Cold War Did Stalinism form a system in its own right or was it a mere stage in the overall development of Soviet society Was it an aberration from Leninism or the logical conclusion of Marxism Was its violence the revenge of the Russian past or the result of a revolutionary mindset Was Stalinism the work of a madman or the product of social forces beyond his control The book shows the complexities of historiographical debates where evidence politics personality and biography are strongly entangled Debates on Stalinism allows readers to better understand not only the history of history writing but also contemporary controversies and conflicts in the successor states of the Soviet Union in particular Russia and Ukraine

Modernity and the Pandemic Sean

Creaven, 2023-12-01 Modernity and the Pandemic Decivilization Imperialism and COVID 19 applies the tools of critical social theory to make sense of the COVID 19 crisis and presents a critical sociological analysis of aspects of the political and community response to the pandemic The book focuses on key themes integral to a sociology of pandemics in the global age Firstly Creaven argues that cultures of individualism and consumerism and of pervasive and deeply entrenched social inequalities that is decivilization significantly weaken the cause of public health by weakening the compliance of people with state mandated non pharmaceutical interventions including and especially physical distancing rules and encouraging vaccine hesitancy Secondly Creaven examines how interstate competition and imperial politics have undermined an effective global policy response to the COVID 19 pandemic Policy failure with regard to the management of the pandemic is interpreted as being rooted in the dominance of neoliberal ideology and governance in the politics of international relations particularly in the politics of the leading state actors by protecting corporate interests at the expense of public health and in the constraints imposed on state actors by the competitive dynamic of multinational capitalism in the global age Modernity and the Pandemic will appeal to scholars in the humanities and social sciences with interests in neoliberalism and its social cultural and epidemiological impacts
