Good News for Moderns Nero James Pruitt,2015-06-27 There are many ways to be a Christian In Good News for Moderns author Nero James Pruitt shows that within the pages of the New Testament there is room for a diversity of Christianities This is a diversity that is not talked about often but when properly understood expands the perception of what a Christian is Consider the words of Justin Martyr the second century Christian writer recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church the Anglicans and the Eastern Orthodox in about 150 AD We are taught that Christ is the first born of God and we have shown that He is the reason word of whom the whole human race partake And those who live according to reason are Christians even though they are counted atheists Such were Socrates and Heraclitus among the Greeks and those like them Consider the words of John Adams the second President of the United States in 1816 The Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount contain my religion Consider the words Bill Clinton the forty second President of the United States In 1955 I had absorbed enough of my churchs teachings to know that I was a sinner and to want Jesus to save me Finally consider the words of the writer of the small New Testament Book of III John Whoever does good is from God Good News for Moderns is based on Pruitts reading of the scriptures and over one hundred authors of various points of view In our busy time it is brief slightly more than one hundred thousand words supplemented by slightly less than one hundred thousand words of end notes It recognizes that human life moves by fast in what seems like an infinity of time and space and the book closes this way By listing many who have come before us and the immensity of time and space I have underscored the brevity of our lives because as a Psalmist taught recognizing our own mortality is the path to wisdom

Wachs, Jon D. Schaff, 2019-11-29 Age of Anxiety Meaning Identity and Politics in 21st Century Film and Literature analyzes literature and films that speak to our age of anxiety resulting from the decline of narratives that provided individuals with a meaningful human life The authors argue that the twentieth century sought to free individuals from the constraints of authoritative cultural traditions and institutions liberating the autonomous self Yet this has given rise to anxiety rather than liberation Instead of deriving one's sense of purpose from one's role and place within a community the consumer has been deceived into thinking that their identity can be purchased through the meaning represented by the conspicuous consumption of a brand The same phenomenon manifests itself in politics within recent populist revolts against globalist politics In addition the rapid pace of technological development is driving an unprecedented faith in the malleability of human beings raises doubts as to what it means to be a person Utilizing paradigms from the fields of Communication Rhetoric and Political Philosophy the book shows how the self has been displaced from its natural habitat of the local community The book traces the origins of modern anxiety as well as possible remedies Considered in the book are such popular culture artifacts as Downton Abbey Wall-E Hacksaw Ridge Westworld and Lord of the Rings and zombie films Bibliophobia Brian Cummings, 2022-02-10 Bibliophobia is a book about material books how they are cared for and how they are damaged throughout the 5000 year history of writing from Sumeria to the smartphone Its starting point is the contemporary idea of the death of the book implied by the replacement of physical books by digital media with accompanying twenty first century experiences of paranoia and literary apocalypse It traces a twin fear of omniscience and oblivion back to the origins of writing in ancient Babylon and Egypt then forwards to the age of Google It uncovers bibliophobia from the first Chinese emperor to Nazi Germany alongside parallel stories of bibliomania and bibliolatriy in world religions and literatures Books imply cognitive content embodied in physical form in which the body cooperates with the brain At its heart this relationship of body and mind or letter and spirit always retains a mystery Religions are founded on holy books which are also sites of transgression so that writing is simultaneously sacred and profane In secular societies these complex feelings are transferred to concepts of ideology and toleration In the ambiguous future of the internet digital immateriality threatens human equilibrium once again Bibliophobia is a global history covering six continents and seven religions describing written examples from each of the last thirty centuries and several earlier It discusses topics such as the origins of different kinds of human script the development of textual media such as scrolls codices printed books and artificial intelligence the collection and destruction of libraries the use of books as holy relics talismans or shrines and the place of literacy in the history of slavery heresy blasphemy censorship and persecution It proposes a theory of writing how it relates to speech images and information or to concepts of mimesis personhood and politics Originating as the Clarendon Lectures in the Faculty of English at the University of Oxford the methods of Bibliophobia range across book history comparative religion philosophy from Plato to Hegel and Freud and a range of global literature from ancient to contemporary Richly illustrated with textual forms material objects and art works its inspiration is the power that books always and continue to have in the emotional spiritual bodily and imaginative lives of readers The Feathered World ,1919 Interactive Storytelling Mirjam Vosmeer,Lissa Holloway-Attaway,2022-12-01 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 15th International Conference on Interactive Digital Storytelling ICIDS 2022 held in Santa Cruz CA USA in December 2022 The 30 full papers and 10 short papers presented together with 17 posters and demos were carefully reviewed and selected from 79 submissions
