The US in World War I

Objective

(writing prompt, your self)

1. explain the impact the military-industrial effect had on the outcome of the war.
2. describe the changes that occurred in the American home front during the war and the impact on the home front as a result of the war effort.
3. compare and contrast the involvement of African American soldiers in the military the democratic principles they fought for during the war.
4. understand how the deep hatred Wilson's Executive Order contributed to the signing of the Treaty of Versailles.

The United States and the War in Europe

In April of 1917, President Woodrow Wilson addressed a joint session of Congress.

He called on the legislators to join an effort to declare war on Germany and join the war in Europe. September Congress declared war against Germany, and the United States entered World War I.

When United States entered the war, Congress passed legislation to allow the US to loan money to the allied nations for war supplies. It also established drafting system law of 1917. This law established the draft which allowed the United States to recruit its own through conscription law which applied to all men aged 18 to 30 years old regardless of their circumstances.
