Commonwealth Universities Yearbook, 2007 Higher Education Pathways Ashwin, Paul, Case, Jennifer M., 2018-12-14 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues

Universities, Employability and Human Development Melanie Walker, Samuel Fongwa, 2017-01-20 The book makes a significant contribution to critical higher education studies specifically to graduate employability research and to capabilities and education research The book moves beyond the simplistic conception of alleged gaps in graduate skills and mismatches between employers and universities and instead provides an innovative multi dimensional and intersectional human capabilities conceptualisation of graduate employability The book challenges an individualised notion of employability instead locating employability issues in social and economic conditions and argues that employability choices cannot be divorced from inequality Qualitative and quantitative data from multiple case study universities in South Africa are used to explore the perceptions and experiences of diverse students lecturers support officers and employers regarding what each university is doing or should be doing to enhance graduate economic opportunities and contribute to inclusive development The book will be highly relevant to students scholars and researchers in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in graduate employability Reimagining Effective Stakeholder Governance Practices in Higher Education

An Analysis of Educational Challenges in the New South Africa Zandile P. Nkabinde, 1997-04 This book deals with current developments in black education in South Africa since the introduction of Bantu education in the beginning of the 1990s During the period under discussion improvements have been made in black education These improvements are partly due to the significant political changes currently taking place in South Africa that are supposed to mark the end of apartheid Despite these developments much remains to be done in order to remedy the effects of Bantu education In particular providing quality education in black schools will require innovative solutions Proper planning developing new teaching strategies establishing practical educational goals and identifying and using available resources must be controlled and harnessed to a new social order Collaboration and coordination of all professionals particularly blacks will be a necessity The process of change requires black participation in finding solutions to their educational problems this is one of the major challenges facing post apartheid South Africa It is evident that there are more challenges that the post apartheid era will present This book is aimed at providing tentative alternative solutions to black education
