Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives Anna Rocca, Kenneth S. Reeds, 2013 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of live events The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women s articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives Kenneth Reeds, Anna Rocca, 2013-10-03 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of life events and is an early step towards confronting the dearth of analysis on this subject The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women s articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression in French Among many themes the book fosters discussion on matters of courage strength resilience freedom self fulfillment political engagement compassion faith and the envisioning of unconventional alliances that follow a woman s stepping out of her comfort zone The fourteen essays included in this collection discuss works of women authors from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa France and the Caribbean They exemplify a variety of self narratives that blur unified conceptualizations of both identity and national belonging They address questions about women writers attitudes towards risk and their willingness to change the status quo They also explore the many personal and public forms in which agency manifests through risk taking engagements the ways in which women challenge the conventional wisdom about feminine reserve and aversion to danger the multiplicity of seen and unforeseen consequences of risk taking the all too frequent lack of recognition of female courage the overcoming of obstacles by taking risks and frequently the amelioration of women s lives Addressing both the broader context of the study of risk and the more specific areas of female expression and autobiography in Francophone cultures this collection is attractive to a diverse audience with the potential to cross disciplines and inform a wide body of research A number of the essays deal with issues born in postcolonial circumstances This examination of the elucidation of marginalized voices should prove enlightening to an array of scholars researching specific ethnic sexual gender and general subjects related to identity In making inroads towards expanding the well developed area of risk studies into the humanities this collection makes an important contribution that has the potential to promote a variety of cross disciplinary research including examinations of the psychology and sociology behind chauvinism personal expression and formative experiences Transnational Orientalisms in Contemporary Spanish and Latin American Cinema Michele C. Dávila Gonçalves, 2016-02-08 In recent decades in Spain and Latin America transnational voices typically stereotyped alienated or co opted in the Western world have been gaining increasing presence in cultural texts The transnational representation of the Oriental subject namely Arabs and Jews Chinese and other ethnic groups that have migrated to Spain and Latin America either voluntarily or forcefully is now being seen anew in both literature and cinema This book explores Orientalism beyond literature in which it has already garnered attention to examine the new ways of seeing and interpreting both the Middle East and the East in contemporary films in which many of the immigrants traditionally omitted from the dominant narratives are able to present the trauma memories and violence of their exile and migration As such this volume explores the representation of those single and doubly marginalized groups in contemporary Spanish and Latin American cinema analysing how films from Spain Mexico Chile Brazil and Argentina portray transnational subjects from a wide spectrum of the Orient world including Maghrebs from North Africa and Palestinian Jewish Chinese and Korean peoples Once vulnerable to the dominant culture of their adopted homes facing ostracism and marginalisation these groups are now entering into the popular imagination and revised history of their new countries This volume explores the following questions as starting points for its analysis Are these manifestations the new orientalist normative or are there other characterizations Are new cinematic scopes and understandings being created The old stereotypical orientalist ways of seeing these vulnerable groups are beginning to change to a more authentic representation although in some cases they may still reside in the subtext of films
