Journeys Exposed Giorgia Alù, 2018-09-03 Journeys Exposed Women's Writing Photography and Mobility examines contemporary literature written by women that are all in different ways related to Italy It argues that photography provides women with a means to expose aspects of their nomadic self and of the others mobile lives within and beyond the writing process By resorting to the visual women individualistically respond to forms of hegemonic power fragmentation displacement loss and marginality and make these experiences key to their creative production

La Mamma Penelope Morris, Perry Willson, 2018-06-07 The idea of the mamma italiana is one of the most widespread and recognizable stereotypes in perceptions of Italian national character both within and beyond Italy This figure makes frequent appearances in jokes and other forms of popular culture but it has also been seen as shaping the lived experience of modern day Italians of both sexes as well as influencing perceptions of Italy in the wider world This interdisciplinary collection examines the invented tradition of mammismo but also contextualizes it by discussing other often contrasting ways in which the role of mothers and the mother son relationship have been understood and represented in culture and society over the last century and a half both in Italy and in its diaspora

Mothers, Mobility, Narrative Mary Jo Bona, 2025-05-01 Shows how US literary representations of mothering across racial ethnic and LGBTQ communities challenge ideological prescriptions about motherhood and maternal love Mothers Mobility Narrative pairs women identified writers whose work illuminates a range of maternal practices in the face of egregious structural inequalities and obstacles By using the critical lens of maternal feminism alongside recent theories of time space and memory Mary Jo Bona reengages the field of motherhood studies to explore linkages between motherhood and movement Across genres Harriet Jacobs Willa Cather Toni Morrison Audre Lorde Kym Ragusa Carole Maso Cristina Garcia and Rebecca Makkai develop maternal figures who in battling against institutional oppressions in eras of slavery colonialism dictatorship and pandemic expose the fundamentally intersectional nature of social categorization and disrupt traditional discourses of the maternal Mothers Mobility Narrative rethinks maternity across a century and a half of literary expression in the United States compelling readers to embrace more capacious understandings of maternal subjectivity care and kinship

Redirecting Ethnic Singularity Yiorgos Anagnostou, Yiorgos D. Kalogeras, Theodora Patrona, 2022-05-03 Winner Vasiliki Karagiannaki Prize for the Best Edited Volume in Modern Greek Studies Promotes the understanding of Italian Americans and Greek Americans through the study of their interactions and juxtapositions Redirecting Ethnic Singularity Italian Americans and Greek Americans in Conversation contributes to US ethnic and immigration studies by bringing into conversation scholars working in the fields of Italian American and Greek American studies in the United States Europe and Australia The work moves beyond the single group approach an approach that privileges the study of ethnic singularity to explore instead two ethnic groups in relation to each other in the broader context of the United States The chapters bring into focus transcultural interfaces and inquire comparatively about similarities and differences in cultural representations associated with these two groups This co edited volume contributes to the fields of transcultural and comparative studies The book is multi disciplinary It features scholarship from the perspectives of architecture ethnomusicology education history cultural and literary studies and film studies as well as whiteness studies It examines the production of ethnicity in the context of American political culture as well as that of popular culture including visual representations documentary film TV series and low brow crime fiction It includes analysis of literature It involves comparative work on religious architecture transoceanic circulation of racialized categories translocal interconnections in the formation of pan Mediterranean identities and the making of the immigrant past in documentaries from Italian and Greek filmmakers This volume is the first of its kind in initiating a multidisciplinary transcultural and comparative study across European Americans Italian Americans on the Page Ryan Calabretta-Sajder, Alan J. Gravano, 2025-10-01 Approaches Italian American literature from new critical perspectives and explores contemporary and understudied voices from both the United States and Canada Italian Americans on the Page fills a significant gap in Italian American and Italian diaspora studies particularly literature as it explores four genres fiction poetry memoir and theater from a variety of critical perspectives The first section of the book offers reconsiderations of two canonical authors Helen Barolini and Don DeLillo while the other three sections bring new attention to understudied Italian American and Italian Canadian writers including women and LGBTQIA These include Mary Jo Salter Peter Covino Louise DeSalvo Karen Tintori Juliet Grames Ben Piazza Salvatore Antonio Christopher DiRaddo Michele Linfante Chris Cinque Theresa Carilli Mary Melfi and Michaela Di Cesare Each contribution approaches Italian American and Italian diaspora studies through a unique theoretical lens adding to the richness of what proceeds this publication in the field Ultimately the volume offers rereadings of foundational Italian American works and provides newfound attention to understudied and emerging Italian diasporic voices
