Womens Irony Rewriting Feminist Rhetorical Histories:

Women's Irony Tarez Samra Graban, 2015-07-21 In Women's Irony Rewriting Feminist Rhetorical Histories author Tarez Samra Graban synthesizes three decades of scholarship in rhetoric linguistics and philosophy to present irony as a critical model for feminist rhetorical historiography that is not linked to humor lying or intention Graban challenges critical methods in rhetoric asking scholars in rhetoric and its related disciplines to rethink how they produce historical knowledge and use archives to recover women's performances in political situations

Legitimization of Mormon Feminist Rhetors Tiffany D. Kinney, 2021-11-10 Legitimization of Mormon Feminist Rhetors studies how marginalized groups use rhetorical strategies to craft legitimacy for themselves Kinney uses archival research to parse the rhetorical devices employed by Mormon feminist women The author assumes a pan historical methodology by examining four unique examples of notable Mormon feminist rhetors that stretch across the 191 year history of this religion Emmeline B Wells 1828 1921 Fawn Brodie 1915 1981 Sonia Johnson 1936 present and Kate Kelly 1980 present Backed by intensive analysis the author finds that Mormon feminist women take up the ancient rhetorical canons as a heuristic to cultivate a position of authority for themselves Wells employs arrangement patterns Brodie engages with memory Johnson draws upon invention practices and Kelly applies delivery strategies Scholars and students of communication rhetoric religion and women's studies will find this book particularly interesting

Women and Irony in Molière's Comedies of Marriage John D. Lyons, 2024-02-16 This is a book about how Moli re France's most celebrated author of comedies made something strikingly new out of the traditional comedy plot of thwarted courtship Though justly celebrated for his mastery of physical comedy and farce one of Moli re's key moves was to pay attention to the way women could use language Seventeenth century France was a time when speaking well became exceptionally important and in this arena women were the trend setters Among the most important places to display taste and social skills were the salons gatherings presided over by women Yet women still enjoyed little in the way of rights particularly regarding a central decision in their lives the choice of a husband French regulations of marriage contracts became increasingly restrictive largely to the detriment of women To draw attention to their plight women novelists and essayists presented case studies in how men and women misunderstood one another how women were coerced to wed how marriages could become nightmares and how courtships could fail Against this fraught social background Moli re showed women using one of the few assets they had their mastery of words and in particular the rhetoric of irony to frustrate the plans of fathers guardians and other authority figures The comedies discussed here include very well known plays such as The Misanthrope Tartuffe The Learned Ladies The School for Wives and Don Juan and also less known but revealing and thought provoking works such as The School for Husbands George Dandin and Monsieur de Pourceaugnac

Feminist Circulations Jessica Enoch, Karen Nelson, 2021-06-04 The scholars in FEMINIST CIRCULATIONS RHETORICAL EXPLORATIONS ACROSS SPACE AND TIME work at the nexus of gender power and movement to explore the rhetorical nature of circulation especially considering how women from varying backgrounds and their rhetorics have moved and have been constrained across both space and time Among the central characters studied in this collection are early modern laborers letter writers petitioners and embroiderers African American elocutionists freedom singers and bloggers Muslim religious leaders Quaker suffragists South African filmmakers nineteenth century conduct book writers and twenty first century pop stars To generate their claims contributors draw from and make use of a breadth of archival and primary documents music videos tweets petitions letters embroidery work speeches memoirs diaries and made for television movies Authors read these texts with scrutiny and imagination adding distinction to their chapters arguments about circulation by zeroing in on specific rhetorical concepts that span from rhetorical agency cultivation of ethos and development of rhetorical education to capacities for social networking collective and collaborative authorship and kairotic interventions Contributors include Jane Donawerth Jessica Enoch Danielle Griffin Nabila Hijazi Shirley Logan Elizabeth Ellis Miller Karen Nelson Michele Osherow Ruth Osorio Erin Sadlack Adele Seeff and Lisa Zimmerelli Feminist Rhetorical Science Studies Julie Jung, Amanda Booher, 2018-01-30 This edited collection disrupts tendencies in feminist science studies to dismiss rhetoric as having concern only for language and it counters posthumanist theories that ignore human materialities and asymmetries of power as co constituted with and through distinctions such as gender sex race and ability The eight essays of Feminist Rhetorical Science Studies Human Bodies Posthumanist Worlds model methodologies for doing feminist research in the rhetoric of science Collectively they build innovative interdisciplinary bridges across the related but divergent fields of feminism posthumanism new materialism and the rhetoric of science Each essay addresses a question How can feminist rhetoricians of science engage responsibly with emerging theories of the posthuman Some contributors respond with case studies in medical practice fetal ultrasound patient noncompliance medical science the neuroscience of sex differences and health policy drug trials of the U S Food and Drug Administration others respond with a critical review of object oriented ontology and a framework for researching women technical writers in the workplace The contributed essays are in turn framed by a comprehensive introduction and a final chapter from the editors who argue that a key contribution of feminist posthumanist rhetoric is that it rethinks the agencies of people things and practices in ways that can bring about more ethical human relations Individually the contributions offer as much variety as consensus on matters of methodology Together they demonstrate how feminist posthumanist and materialist approaches to science expand our notions of what rhetoric is and does yet they manage to do so without sacrificing what makes their inquiries distinctively rhetorical

Retroactivism in the Lesbian Archives Jean Bessette, 2018 Winner 2018 Winifred Bryan Horner Outstanding Book Award

Grassroots historiography has been essential in shaping American sexual identities in the twentieth century. Retroactivism in the Lesbian Archives examines how lesbian collectives have employed retroactivist rhetorics to propel change in present identification and politics. By appropriating and composing versions of the past, these collectives question, challenge, deconstruct, and reinvent historical discourse itself to negotiate and contest lesbian identity. Bessette considers a diverse array of primary sources, including grassroots newsletters, place-based archives, experimental documentary films, and digital video collections, to investigate how retroactivists have revised and replaced dominant accounts of lesbian deviance. Her analysis reveals inventive rhetorical strategies leveraged by these rhetors to belie the alienating, dispersing effects of discourses that painted women with same-sex desire as diseased and criminal. Focusing on the Daughters of Bilitis, the Lesbian Herstory Archives, and the June L. Mazer Archives, and on historiographic filmmakers such as Barbara Hammer and Cheryl Dunye, Bessette argues that these retroactivists composed versions of a queer past that challenged then-present oppressions, joined together provisional communities, and disrupted static definitions and associations of lesbian identity. Retroactivism in the Lesbian Archives issues a challenge to feminist and queer scholars to acknowledge how historiographic rhetoric functions in defining and contesting identities and the historical forces that shape them.

Rethinking Ethos

Kathleen J. Ryan, Nancy Myers, Rebecca Jones, 2016-06-03. Labels traditionally ascribed to women—mother, angel of the house, whore, or bitch—suggest character traits that do not encompass the complexities of women's identities or empower women's public speaking. Rethinking Ethos: A Feminist Ecological Approach to Rhetoric redefines the concept of ethos, classically thought of as character or credibility, as ecological and feminist, negotiated and renegotiated and implicated in shifting power dynamics. Building on previous feminist and rhetorical scholarship, this essay collection presents a sustained discussion of the unique methods by which women's ethos is constructed and transformed. Editors Kathleen J. Ryan, Nancy Myers, and Rebecca Jones identify three rhetorical maneuvers that characterize ethos in the feminist ecological imaginary: ethē as interruption, interrupting ethē as advocacy, advocating, and ethē as relation, relating. Each section of the book explores one of these rhetorical maneuvers. An afterword gathers contributors' thoughts on the collection's potential impact and influence, possibilities for future scholarship, and the future of feminist rhetorical studies. With its rich mix of historical examples and contemporary case studies, Rethinking Ethos offers a range of new perspectives, including queer theory, transnational approaches, radical feminism, Chicana feminism, and indigenous points of view, from which to consider a feminist approach to ethos.
